COTTER'S BEST POTATOES.

We find there is keen competition in the Potato Trade just now, and we have made all arrangements to meet it. We are in a very favourable position to do this, having 60/70 of the best and keenest buyers representing us in the growing districts. We are ourselves experts, and in our employment in Dublin we have a staff second to none in the trade in this country, or, for that matter, anywhere else. Every lot of Potatoes coming in here is sampled, cocked, and tested before being sent out. It is not an easy thing to put a value on all this, but it is surely a great safeguard for buyers. After all, in Buying Potatoes the price is only an item—the quality is the main test. You secure this by buying from us—always remembering that "COTTER'S BEST POTATOES" have held the highest place in public estimation for a long period.

BROTHERS SENT FOR TRIAL.

Anthony and Thomas O'Brien, brothers, were, at the Northern Police Court yesterday, sent for trial to the City Sessions on a charge of having stolen musical instruments worth £20 from the Workmen's Club, York street, which had been locked up since 1918.

There have been some lively developments (says a Fiume telegram) in the political situation here. Several citizens forced their way into the Government Palace to protest against the disorders which they allege to have taken place in the city. At the request of the Provisional Government, a thousand Carabineers have arrived at Fiume to maintain order.

LAW REPORTS.

KILKENNY LIGHTING CONTRACT.—Before Mr. Justice Ross yesterday an application was made in the case of the Kilkenny Gas Lessees, Ltd., against the Mayor and Corporation of Kilkenny, under the Courts Emergency Powers Act, for an order annulling the contract between the Gas Lessees and the Corporation with regard to the public lighting of Kilkenny. The contract was entered into in 1909, and since then the price of materials, especially coal, had increased to such an extent that it was impossible for the Gas Lessees to continue to do the lighting. The contract was for a period of fifteen years. The lighting of the town had actually cost the Gas Lessees £1,260 a year, and they were losing £760 on the contract. To fulfil the contract would mean a loss to the plaintiffs, and under the circumstances they asked that the contract be annulled, and counsel asked that at least the contract be suspended for a period. Mr. Justice Ross said that the applicants might leave the town in darkness at any moment if he annulled the contract. Mr. Swayne said that suspension was more likely to lead to a settlement. Mr. Justice Ross made an order suspending the contract until further order, with liberty to apply for annulment if a settlement was not arrived at between the parties. He said that he would much prefer that an agreement should be come to. Mr. Swayne said that he believed once the parties began negotiations the matter would be settled. Counsel for the applicants—Mr. E. S. Murphy, K.C., and Mr J. H. Russell (instructed by Messrs. J. Shannon and Co.) Mr. Swayne, K.C., and Mr. Chas. Power (instructed by Mr. M. Buggy) appeared for the Corporation.

BELFAST VAN ACCIDENT.—In the King's Bench Division, before Mr. Justice Gibson, in the case of Waddell v. British Petroleum Co., Ltd., Mr. Sainsbury, with whom was Mr. J. M. Whitaker K.C. (instructed by Messrs. C. and H. Jefferson) applied on behalf of the defendants, who have their registered office in Fenchurch street, London, to have the writ in which John Houston, the company's van driver, had been joined as defendant, set aside and the proceedings stayed on the ground that Houston had only been joined as defendant for the purposes of costs, and also on the ground that material facts with regard to the obtaining of liberty to issue and serve a previous writ out of the jurisdiction had been suppressed. The action was brought on behalf of John Waddell, a schoolboy, to recover damages for personal injuries sustained by him while returning from school in the vicinity of Manor street, Belfast, on the 8th of June last, in consequence of being knocked down by the defendants' van, driven by Houston. Mr. Thompson, K.C. (instructed by Mr. John Graham) opposed the application on behalf of the plaintiff. Mr. Justice Gibson refused the application, and directed the defendants' cost of the motion to be costs in the cause, stating that he did not see why both defendants mentioned should not be joined.

POLICE OFFICER'S DIVORCE SUIT.—In the King's Bench Division (Matrimonial) before Mr. Justice Ross, in the case in which Mr. George Elyston Compton Preston, District Inspector, R.I.C., Longford, is petitioner, and his wife, Edith Preston, is respondent. Mr. Marnan (instructed by Mr. T. W. Delany), for the petitioner, applied for an order fixing the mode of trial. The petitioner seeks a divorce a mensa et thoro from his wife on the ground of her misconduct. A defence was filed, but no answer to the charge was given. Counsel suggested that the petition should be tried by a judge without a jury. Mr. C. Friery, solicitor, for the respondent said that he did not object to that. Mr. Justice Ross directed that the petition be tried by a judge without a jury.

A DUBLIN TENANCY.—In the King's Bench Division before Mr. Justice Gibson, Mr. Justice Dodd and Mr. Justice Moore, in the case of George Temple against Lawrence Murray. Mr. J. M. Whitaker, K.C., with whom was Mr. Sainsbury (instructed by Messrs. J. H. Menton and Co.) applied on behalf of the defendant for an order that the judgment entered for the plaintiff be set aside, and that, in lieu thereof, judgment be entered for the defendant, with costs, on the grounds that there was no evidence that the plaintiff, who saught possession of certain premises, consisting of a shop, at 139 Capel street, Dublin, which were let to the defendant at 17s. a week, required them for business purposes, or for the public service, and that the judge who had tried the case had misdirected himself, and should have entered judgment for the defendant. It appeared that the plaintiff formerly carried on hotel business at 137 and 138 Capel street (which he held from Messrs. Boland), and retired from business some years ago. He had since been disposing of his house property. He holds 139 Capel street under lease which he purchased from Dr. Allen in 1908, at a yearly rent of £40 (adjusted to £38). Requiring the upper portion of the premises for the hotel, he left Dr. Allen in possession of the shop, which he cut off from the upper portion of the premises, and made openings on the first and second floors from 138 to 139. Dr. Allen's tenancy having terminated in 1918, the plaintiff orally let the shop to the defendant about two years ago as a weekly tenant at 17s. a week, where he carries on business as a pawnbroker's salesman. Plaintiff, some time ago, surrendered to his landlord the premises, 137 and 138, on the expiration of the lease, and closed up the existing entrances to No. 139. He was not able to get access to the upper portion of 139 except through the defendant's shop, which the defendant was unwilling to allow. He determined the tenancy by notice to quit, expiring on the 21st June, 1920, and brought the ejectment, claiming £25 mesne profits. Plaintiff offered to sell his interest in the shop to the defendant for £20, but as the premises were in bad condition defendant declined to take over the responsibility of being possibly compelled to carry out the covenants in the lease, and expend a large sum of money. He would not accept the offer. The defendant, in his defence, pleaded that he was in possession, and relied on the provisions of the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (Restoration) Act, 1920. The Lord Chief Justice, who tried the case, held that the plaintiff was entitled to recover on the ground that he required the premises for business purposes in order to make the rent and taxes, instead of sustaining an annual loss, and that it would be impossible to make any letteting of the upper portion, as long as he could not obtain access to it. He also held that greater hardship would be caused by refusing the order for possession than by granting it. The Court now (Mr. Justice Dodd dissenting) set aside the judgment for the plaintiff, and gave judgment for the defendant with costs of the action and of the appeal. Mr. Best, K.C., and Mr. Smylie (instructed by Messrs. Molloy, Fayle and Co.) appeared for the plaintiff.

MONEY-LENDER'S CLAIM.—In the King's Bench Division, before Mr. Justice Gibson, in the case of Samuel and Freedman v. Ellis, Mr. Lardner (instructed by Mr. R. W. MacNeice) applied on behalf of the plaintiffs, Messrs. Samuel and Freedman, financiers, of 94 Jermyn street, Piccadilly, London, for final judgment for £162 alleged to be due by the defendant, Francis Rolleston Leslie-Ellis, of Magheramore, Co. Wicklow, on foot of a promissory note dated 15th November, 1920, which was payable to the plaintiffs by twelve consecutive monthly payments of £13 10/- each. In default of payment of any instalment, or part thereof, the whole amount then remaining outstanding upon the note became immediately payable according to the terms arranged, as stated on affidavit by a member of the plaintiffs' firm. The defendant, it was alleged, made default in payment of an instalment of £13 10/- due and payable on 16th December last. The defendant, for whom Mr. Oliver Murphy (instructed by Messrs. H. and W. Stanley) appeared, stated in an affidavit explaining the circumstances under which the note was signed, that in the early part of November last he received a circular from the plaintiffs, with whom he had had no previous transaction whatever, by which they offered to lend money to intending borrowers, and as he required a loan of £100 he wrote the plaintiffs if they would lend that amount, offering to give them £40 interest for the loan for 12 months. He informed them that he was legatee of property in Ireland, of which Magheramore formed part, under the will of his father, the late Lieutenant-Colonel Henry Leslie-Ellis, and would become entitled, on reaching the age of 30, to the stock and farm implements at Maghernamore, which were valued at between £8,000 and £10,000. He was also entitled to a life interest out of lands under a resettlement, which would amount to about £330 a year. Mr. Murphy said the interest was excessive and unconscionable, and that the defendant should be allowed to defend the action. He admitted that he owed the £100, and was willing to pay any reasonable amount for interest. Mr. Justice Gibson made "no rule," on the motion, allowing the defendant to defend on condition that he lodged £100 in Court and plead within ten days, and also allowing him the costs of the motion.

ENNISKILLEN SOLDIER'S DEATH.—In the Probate Court, before Mr. Justice Ross, in the goods of John E. Irvine, late Private in the 2nd Battalion Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, Ulster Division. Mr. Begley (instructed by Mr. James Cooper) applied on behalf of Mr. William Irvine, of Derryhowlaght, Co. Fermanagh, for an order presuming the death of John E. Irvine. The presumed deceased wrote to his sister on 22nd March, 1918. After that he went into the trenches and was in an attack which was made by the Germans at Amiens, when they were breaking through. Miss Maggie Ellen Irvine, of Enniskillen, stated in an affidavit that she had been informed by Captain Gordon, who was in March, 1918, attached to the 109th Infantry Brigade, to which the second Battalion Inniskilling Fusiliers belonged. The battalion, which was under the command of Lord Farnham, was in the first line trenches on the 28th March, and practically the whole of the men in those trenches were casualties on that morning, which was the first morning of the big German attempt to break through.

Mr. Jusaice Ross made an order presuming the death, and also gave leave to Mr. William Irvine, the executor, to apply for a grant of probate of the last will.

DAMAGES FOR MOTOR CAR ACCIDENT.—In the King's Bench Division, before Mr. Justice Gibson, in the case of Bernard Irwin v. Matthew Finegan, an application was made on behalf of the defendant to make a Consent a rule of Court, settling the action which was brought by the plaintiff for damage caused by having been knocked down by defendant's motor car at Dundalk, from which he suffered serious injury. The Consent provided for the payment to the plaintiff of £750 damages, £50 medical expenses, and £60 costs.

Mr. Justice Gibson made the Consent a rule of court.

BELFAST INDEMNITY CASE.—In the King's Bench Division, Mr. Justice Samuels gave judgment in favour of the defendant, with costs, in the case of Givan v. Malcolm, which he had heard without a jury. The action had been brought by Henry Givan, motor engineer, of Dartry, Co. Monaghan, against O. Malcolm, of 19 Ereton street, Botanic avenue, Belfast, to recover £275, alleged to be due on foot of a contract of indemnity dated 1st August, 1913, whereby the defendant undertook to discharge all liabilities of the firm of O. Malcolm and Co. from that date, and keep the plaintiff indemnified against all claims in respect of the company, and for damages for breach of contract. The plaintiff had been the works manager and director of the firm of O. Malcolm, Ltd., in which he was also a shareholder; and it was agreed that he should sell his shares to the company and retire from the directorship and managership, and as part of this transaction the defendant gave the indemnity now sued upon. It appeared that the company ultimately went into liquidation, and the liquidator brought the action against Mr. Givan to recover £400 which he had paid for his shares, on the ground that the sale of the shares was contrary to the Companies Acts. The action was settled by the payment of £200 by Mr. Givan to the liquidator, and Mr. Givan now claimed under the indemnity the £200 and £75 costs. Mr. Justice Samuels gave judgment for the defendant, with costs. Mr. T. W. Brown, K.C., M.P., and Mr. Leet (instructed by Mr. W. Martin), appeared for the plaintiff; Mr. H. Thompson, K.C., and Mr. Ellison appeared for the defendant.

"NUGGET" BOOT POLISH

THE ZEBU.

The zebu, or domestic cattle of India, may be recognised in the Zoo by the large hump of fat on the withers, their large drooping ears, very large dewlap, and ashy grey colour, shading off to cream, with various tints of red, brown, or black. It is a quiet and intelligent animal, and is capable of being trained. It is a good draught animal, and is harnessed to carriages or ploughs, which it can draw with great steadiness, though with little speed. Sometimes it is used for riding, and is possessed of considerable endurance, being capable of carrying a rider at an average rate of five or six miles per hour. This race of cattle has a wide range of locality, being found in India, China, Madagascar, and the eastern coast of Africa. It is believed, however, that its native land is India, and that it must have been imported from thence into other countries. There are various breeds of zebu, some being about the size of ordinary cattle and others varying in dimensions from a large ox to a small Newfoundland dog. Those at present in the Zoo belong to the larger varieties. The Hindoos occasionally select a bull, and, placing the sacred mark of Siva on its body, permit it to wander about at its own sweet will. Should it lie down in a narrow lane and stop all traffic, or appropriate the contents of a fruiterer's or greengrocer's shop, no one will dare to make it move on.

RANCHING AS A CAREER.
Good livings—and more—are being made in South African cattle ranching.
The rancher leads a free, independent open-air life. In the Northern Transvaal his environment is often attractive—green and park-like country, diversified by streams and picturesque hills, enlivened by a plentiful and interesting fauna and by the heartening daily sunshine. Generally, good shooting is obtainable.
It is a lonely life, far from the amenities not only of towns but of the more closely settled rural areas. It is, however, a man's life, giving scope for all the more manly qualities. It should appeal to the sportsman. Financially, too, there is much to commend it.
The ranching areas in the Union of South Africa are increasingly being settled, but there is still abundance of grazing land. Most of it may be obtained cheaply, much of it on easy terms from the Government.
There is room and inducement for the newcomer, provided he has capital—generally £2,000 is necessary.
Fuller information about the position, prospects, and capital requirement may be obtained from the Publicity Agent (Section 38), Office of the High Commissioner for the Union of South Africa, 32 Victoria street, London, S.W.1.

NEW CHURCH TO OUR LADY OF LOURDES,
LR. GLOUCESTER STREET, DUBLIN.
A Temporary Edifice has been erected on the site secured for the New Church, which is badly needed in this locality.
It is already crowded, and the Shrine has aroused a deep spirit of Devotion to Our Lady of Lourdes, with most beneficial results among the people.
The Accommodation afforded by the Temporary Structure is inadequate. The Administrator strongly appeals to the Catholics of Dublin and of Ireland for the means to undertake the building of the New Church. The district being one of the most densely-populated and poorest in the city, little pecuniary aid can be expected from it.
The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered EACH WEEK for Subscribers.
Subscriptions will be thankfully received by any of the Clergy, or by

The Irish Times.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 22, 1921.

An attempt was made in Dublin yesterday to ambush a party of the Royal Irish Constabulary. Auxiliary policemen unexpectedly arrived and shot one man and arrested five others. Arms were found on all of them.—(P. 5.)

Several police barracks were attacked in South Tipperary within the past forty-eight hours. In all cases the attackers were beaten off without loss to the garrisons.—(P. 5.)

Up to yesterday evening no arrests had been made in connection with the Sixmilebridge ambush. Two of the six murdered policemen were Englishmen.—(P. 5.)

Numerous arrests have been made by the military in the Tobercurry district of the County Sligo.—(P. 5.)

His Honour Judge Cusack, sitting at Tralee, has awarded sums amounting to £100,000 compensation for malicious damage in that district of the County Kerry.—(P. 5.)

The half-yearly general meeting of the Bank of Ireland was held in Dublin yesterday. Referring to the delivering of the Bank premises to the new Parliament, the Chairman said that they would get ample compensation for any loss that might be incurred in the transference.—(P. 6.)

We print to-day a summary of the fifty-sixth annual report of the Registrar-General for Ireland, which was issued as a Blue Book yesterday.—(P. 8.)

Our Belfast Correspondent reports that preparations in connection with the new Ulster Parliament are being pushed forward as rapidly as possible.—(P. 6.)

It is understood that at their meeting on Thursday the Cabinet approved the increased telephone charges.—(P. 4.)

Mr. Bonar Law, speaking in Edinburgh last night, referred to Ireland. He said that there was avowedly a conspiracy to break the connection between Great Britain and Ireland, and that could not be done without endangering the security of the United Kingdom.—(P. 5.)

The conference of the National Federation of Property Owners and Ratepayers at Manchester yesterday passed a resolution urging that all rent restrictions should be removed on the termination of the present Rent Restrictions Act.—(P. 6.)

The Austrian Minister in London, in an interview with Reuter's representative, urges the immediate raising of credits for the relief of Austria.—(P. 5.)

In London yesterday the Stock Markets were busier and brighter. New Local Loans Stock was quoted at a premium. Loan and discount rates were steady. Gold rallied to 109s. per oz. In Dublin Dunlops reacted on the fresh capital rumours. War Loan Fives were very strong.—(P. 7.)

Ireland's Outlook.

By tolerating murder and other deeds of violence the Irish people are running an even graver risk than that of political and industrial ruin. They are inviting a hardening of the spiritual arteries which, if it is allowed to run its course unchecked, must end in spiritual death. If any God-fearing Irishman had been told, a few years ago, that he would live to regard murder as an almost normal incident, he would have rejected the prediction with incredulous horror; yet so it is to-day. Hardly a morning passes on which the newspapers do not record crimes of bloodshed. Yesterday we reported the murder of District Inspector O'Sullivan, who was shot dead, in the presence of his little child, at Listowel, and of District Inspector Clarke, a sergeant, and four constables, hurried to their doom in an ambush in County Clare. The fact of such crimes and the Irish public's failure to revolt against them are sad symptoms of material and moral anarchy. It is hard to say which is the more lamentable—the madness of the men who commit these outrages or the mood of the country which fears, but suffers, them. All of us—Churchmen, politicians, farmers, men of affairs—seem to be helpless spectators of our country's downfall. The vast majority of Irishmen are men of peace and desire political settlement; but they have watched, without interference and with hardly a word of protest, the steady growth of conditions which take no count of human life and are making settlement impossible. The whole South of Ireland is a prey to lawlessness and stern reprisal. Even Dublin has ceased to be safe, and her citizens walk her streets in the knowledge that death by bomb or bullet may lurk at any corner.

The country's apathy is due partly to fear and partly to selfishness. We suspect that the average Irishman says to himself: "Why should I court an unpleasant publicity when I can get along quietly with my business? The trouble has not reduced my monthly turnover. A settlement is bound to come sooner or later, and the making of it is somebody else's job. In the meanwhile I must share the general risk with such philosophy as I can muster." To-day, no doubt, many people will be fortified in this position by the fact that the Bank of Ireland has had a very successful year and by its Governor's assurance that our agriculture still prospers. The fact and the assurance are welcome, but the view that other people can do our own duty for us and that material prosperity can survive a state of anarchy is utterly false. Every Irishman who takes this short-sighted and selfish view is likely to pay bitterly for it. The campaign of murder and lawlessness, with the military restrictions and reprisals which it has provoked, has inflicted already a vast amount of harm on the country's trade and commerce. If it is allowed to continue, the harm will increase and will become irreparable. The farmer will suffer; the cities and towns will suffer; our trade with Great Britain and other countries will languish. Hundreds of young men who ought to be working on the land or in industry are now in prisons or internment camps or "on the run." The heavy cost of the present military establishments in Ireland will fall largely on the Irish taxpayer—as a result of his own inaction. The whole intellectual life of the country, including the education of the young, will be distracted and impaired, and all the while the demoralising effects of familiarity with deeds of crime will make Irishmen less and less fit for the tasks of progress. As it seems to-day, Southern Ireland is heading straight for Crown Colony government—in other words, a continuance of existing conditions. Where will her trade and agriculture be at the end of even two years of such conditions?

We say, therefore, to the humblest as to the most influential of our fellow-countrymen that in this desperate crisis every one of them has a duty to Ireland and to himself which can be evaded only at the cost of his own and Ireland's ruin. Something can be said for every definite policy, however unpractical and reckless it may be; but nothing at all can be said for the policy of drift. Inexorable forces are pressing our country forward to a new destiny. We cannot divert them, but we—and none save we—can shape them to good or evil ends. If we choose to sit, like Wordsworth's party in a parlour, "all silent and all damned," we shall get Crown Colony government, and shall deserve it. If we wish to escape national bankruptcy and chaos—portended already by the collapse of local government administration—we shall be up and doing without further delay. Within three or four months elections will be held for the new Parliaments of Northern and Southern Ireland. We are reminded of their nearness in almost startling fashion by the discussion at the Bank of Ireland meeting yesterday about the future of "the old House in College Green." What thinking will Southern Ireland do during the next few weeks so pregnant with fate for all her sons and daughters? What steps will she take to ascertain the views of the electors and to organise a public opinion that will be an instrument of their will? Some three millions of Irishmen and Irishwomen are concerned. If they reject the Home Rule Act now, what amendments would make it acceptable to them? Will they elect the Southern Parliament with a mandate to formulate such amendments, or will they boycott the elections and so take another step towards national anarchy? It is the urgent duty of every organised body in the country—county councils, chambers of commerce, farmers' unions, and the like—to discuss these matters. If they refuse to pay their own and their children's future the bare compliment of thinking about it, we warn them that they are only at the beginning of their misfortunes.

The Allies and Austria.

The Austrian Minister yesterday, in an interview with Reuter's Agency, made a final appeal to the British nation on behalf of his tottering country. Baron Franckenstein's views on the situation in Vienna are extremely gloomy; and his pessimism seems to be justified fully by the course of events in that city of sad destiny. Early last week the Austrian Government decided to resign and to give the country, lock, stock, and barrel into the hands of the Reparations Commission. This decision should have taken effect on last Saturday, but by some means or other the evil day was postponed. On Thursday, however, private messages from Vienna to Paris reported that Herr Mayr and his colleagues actually had resigned, and that their decision had given the signal for a general strike. Official confirmation of this report is still lacking, and a message of yesterday's date announces that the Austrian Parliament will meet on Tuesday. Perhaps, it may not be too late even now to stem disaster's rising tide. According to Baron Franckenstein, the delays of the Reparations Commission are the source whence most of the trouble has sprung. This body, it appears, drafted an elaborate scheme of reconstruction several months ago. The Austrian people hailed it with joy as a sure solvent of their problems; but, while it promised them bread, it gave them a stone. Then the question of credits was mooted. The Viennese branch of the Reparations Commission adopted a plan which was approved by the main body in Paris. Hope sprang high again in Austria's breast; but again delay and uncertainty quelled it. The people began to despair of help from Britain or France and to clamour for union with Germany. At the same time the Government was assailed for its alleged indulgence towards speculators and "profiteers." The workers declared that they would take matters into their own hands, and announced that "lynch law" would come into force on January 20th. Fortunately, a respite was granted on Thursday in view of the meeting of the Supreme Council which will be held in Paris next Monday. If the Allies take immediate steps for the provision of adequate credits, popular opinion may be appeased, and the situation for the time being, at any rate, may be saved. If, on the other hand, the Supreme Council fails to ratify the Reparations Commission's credit scheme, and does not adopt some alternative plan of relief, the floodgates of anarchy will be opened on Austria, and her sinking people will seek refuge in Moscow, if they are prevented from seeking it in Berlin. It is futile to preach patience to men whose wives and children are starving before their eyes. Britain and France are poor enough themselves, in all conscience, but they cannot afford to let Austria perish, however great may be the cost of her salvation. If they are unable to save her themselves, they might well instruct the Germans to finance her in part payment of the indemnity. The great essential, however, is speed, and the Austrian problem should claim the first attention of Monday's Conference in Paris.

Von Kluck's Plan.

Germany did not capitulate until the month of November, 1918, but all students of the war agree that, after the battle of the Marne, her greatest chance of success disappeared. Hitherto the circumstances of Von Kluck's defeat and sudden retreat to the Aisne have been a mystery, but now Lieutenant-Colonel Fagalde, Assistant Military Attaché at the French Embassy, has revealed the secret. On the night of September 1st, 1914, he was on duty at the French Headquarters at Jonchéry when a subordinate officer handed him the satchel of a German Staff officer of the Fifth Cavalry Division who had been trapped and killed by a French patrol. On searching the satchel he discovered documents of the utmost importance. They included a map which revealed every detail of the German General's plans. He had intended to march into the valley of the Oise, and the position and strength of every column were marked clearly. The French General Staff had guessed that this was his scheme and had made preparations to counter it. At the last moment, however, Von Kluck had changed his plan: the troops were to march on the next morning in the direction of Paris. Marshal Joffre was informed of the discovery, and, after a hasty consultation, General Gallieni was instructed to hurl his Army—the existence of which the Germans did not suspect—at Von Kluck's flank. The manœuvre, as the world knows, was a complete success. It led to the victory of the Marne and the German retreat to the Aisne. Paris was saved; but one shudders to think of what might have happened if that luckless German Staff officer had escaped the vigilance of the French patrol.

A Marriage Year.

The Irish Registrar-General's returns for 1919 show that in that year the marriage rate was "the highest ever recorded" in Ireland. No less than 27,193 couples, or 6.09 per thousand of the population, were joined together in holy wedlock. A few may have made "a leap in the dark," but it is safe to assume that the majority had satisfied themselves that, despite the house famine and high prices, they could afford to establish homes and to maintain themselves in comfort. Their confidence was a reflection of the general prosperity which the country then enjoyed. No other country was in such a happy position in 1919. Even the death-rate furnishes evidence of prosperity. The Registrar-General assures us that but for the epidemics of influenza and pneumonia, which claimed 14,651 victims during the year, we should have had a new "record" for low mortality from all causes. It is not an unreasonable deduction that the decrease in the number of deaths from other diseases—notably tuberculosis—was the direct result of a higher standard of living. The birth-rate was higher in 1919 than in the previous year.

CABINET APPROVES NEW TELEPHONE TAX.

The Press Association understands that the Cabinet on Thursday endorsed the policy of the Postmaster-General in regard to the increases in the telephone charges. The official view is that, the increases having been based upon the findings of a committee specially appointed to make recommendations on the subject, there was no other course open to the Government without stultifying itself and its committee. While it does not follow that every item in the new scheme is necessarily approved, Mr. Illingworth has the general support of the Cabinet in the matter of the increased rates.

PROTEST BY IRISH AGRICULTURAL ORGANISATION SOCIETY.

The Irish Agricultural Organisation Society has addressed the following letter to the Postmaster-General:—

January 21st, 1921.

SIR,—I am instructed by the Committee of this Society to enter their most emphatic protest against the proposed alteration in the telephone tariff. This Society has brought into existence over a thousand co-operative societies of Irish farmers, which now exist in considerable numbers in every county in the country. These societies embrace a membership of 120,000 persons, mainly heads of families, all more or less engaged in food production. The total turnover of the Irish agricultural co-operative movement is now well over twelve millions sterling per annum.

My Committee feel that the increased charges for telephone facilities will affect most injuriously the movement for which they speak, both locally and at the British side of the Channel, where business is so largely transacted through the telephone.

My Committee instruct me to say that they do not consider the proposed changes should have been made without bringing the matter before Parliament. They further desire to offer the suggestion that, as the Post Office has failed to make the telephone service either efficient or a paying proposition, it should be handed over to private enterprise.—I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

R. A. ANDERSON, Secretary.

THE DUBLIN HOSPITALS.

The fifth list of subscriptions to the Dublin Associated Hospitals Fund, which we publish to-day, presents a peculiarly gratifying feature. It is a practical illustration of the generous and whole-hearted manner in which many of the counties have worked on behalf of the Dublin hospitals. Last week we published details of a collection, amounting to over £300, from North Tipperary, and to-day we give particulars of a collection, over £500, from County Galway. While there were a number of individual subscriptions, the bulk of the money was raised by combined effort—that is, by concerts, chain teas, jumble sales, tennis and golf tournaments, raffles, and whist drives. No one appreciates more keenly the benefit of the Dublin hospitals than the father or mother whose child is lying sick in hospital far from his home, and amongst strangers. No institution takes greater personal care, or extends more sympathy towards the individual at a time when he is most in need of it. The gratitude of the country people has been amply demonstrated by the ready and practical response to the Associated Hospitals' appeal.

The stringent nature of the military regulations in various parts of Ireland has greatly affected, where it has not entirely frustrated, the efforts to raise money for charity. Individual subscriptions are, therefore, particularly necessary at the present time.

LONDON CORRESPONDENC

59 FLEET STREET, LONDO
FRIDAY NIGHT.

M. Briand's inaugural speech as Pri Minister appears to have had a somewh tepid reception in the French Chamb This is not to be wondered at, for circu stances have compelled him to take very much the same attitude as his p decessor in regard to the demands to made on Germany, and there was rea not very much difference in substan though, no doubt, a good deal in to between the speech that he delivered y terday and that for which M. Leygues turned out of office just a week bef Each insisted upon the maintenance o good understanding with this country being of the utmost importance.

The fact that M. Briand's speech not received with rapturous enthusia does not necessarily mean that his ministration will be short-lived. The h tory of the Republic provides plenty examples of a Ministry's being inaugura with an almost unanimous vote of co fidence and yet coming to grief in a fe weeks, while other Cabinets, thou apparently shaky from the start, ha lasted for quite a respectable time.

At the Cabinet Council held yesterd the Prime Minister laid before the Govern ment an outline of the policy he intend to pursue at the meeting of the Suprem Conucil in Paris next week, and receive the support and approval of all present There will be no other meeting of th Cabinet now before the Prime Minist and the Foreign Secretary leave Lond on Sunday morning. Sir L. Worthing Evans, who is spending a holiday Cannes, is, at the request of the Pr Minister, to attend the Paris Conferen in order that he may deal with any qu tions concerning British financial intere

The advent of Mr. Winston Church at the Colonial Office is not expected bef the end of the month, and consequen any statements regarding the fu re pol of that department must be careful scrutinised. It is, however, regarded certain that there will be changes in t Colonial Office, for Colonel Amery is likely to remain as Under-Secretary, wh it seems to be settled that there will two Under-Secretaries in future—one the House of Lords and one in the Hou of Commons.

According to the Pall Mall Gazette, M Ormsby Gore, M.P. for the Stafford Div sion, is likely to be one of the new Unde Secretaries for the Colonies. If so, h will, no doubt, be placed in charge of t new Middle East Department, for he ha a considerable knowledge of Mesopotam and Persia, and made some excelle speeches on the subject last session. H appointment would have the added adva tage, from the Whips' point of view, o "muzzling" a not infrequent critic of th Government.

Of all the articles about the Irish situa tion that I have read recently the oddes is that of Mr. Belloc, which appeared i the Daily News this morning. He declare that the view is widely held both in th United States and on the Continent tha the action of the Government in Irelan is "the persecution of a Catholic peopl because they are Catholic." He admit that it is "a false opinion," but proceed to bolster it up by asserting that "th actual agents of the policy now being pur sued have been chosen by Orangemen an for Orange purposes."

For example, according to Mr. Bell the present Chief Secretary owes h appointment to these sinister influenc "Nothing else," he says, "explains t presence in such a post at such a mome of a man of such contemptible intellectu calibre, unless it be the Orange Lodges o Canada." Well, curiously enough, I happened to ask a friend who has a intimate acquaintance with affairs in th Dominion what Canadians thought of th situation in Ireland. His reply was th the great majority did not think about at all—which seems odd, if Mr. Belloc story of the Orange Lodges has even th slenderest foundation of fact.

When the Prime Minister gets ba from Paris there will be a series of mee ings of the Cabinet to consider plans f next session and to map out a programm The financial proposals of the Governme for the coming financial year have to b framed, and the claims of Ireland an its Government will naturally be co sidered with other topics. It is unde stood that Sir Hamar Greenwood intend to remain in Ireland until this series o Cabinet meetings begin.

Many people are of opinion that th scrapping of the Ministry of Transpo would be a very good thing, but it seem unlikely that the Government are in sy pathy with this idea. An official of th Ministry to-day denied that there was a truth in the report that the Ministry w to be abolished, and further remark that the fact that the Ministry has take over the Road Board bodily, in additi to the canals, railways, and other powe exercised by the Ministry of Health, prov that its abolition is very remote. Furthe more, the Department is to have a big Bil next session dealing with reorganisati of the railways. It seems, therefore, th the Government are not going to pay gre attention to public feeling regarding th Ministry.

It is possible that, during the Prim Minister's absence in France, there wi be considerable difficulties with organis Labour. The "short time" trouble threaten to develop, while the Labour organisatio now seem determined to break away fro the Whitley Councils by way of protes against the decision of the Governme to enforce "short time" in the Gover ment works. This policy, however, is no favoured by many of the leaders, thoug the extremists are most eager that it shal be adopted. It is possible that the whol question will be threshed out at th Labour Conference, and, in the mea while, the Government does not fe called upon to take any steps.

Up to the present the United States ha never possessed an Embassy House i London, and most of the Ministers hav taken private residences, transacting th business of their office at the busine premises of the Embassy in Victori street. Some of the Ambassadors hav been wealthy men, and have taken som of the finest houses in London. Othe have been poor, and their residences we quite small and insignificant. Owing t the generosity of the late Mr. Pierpo Morgan, this state of things will come an end, for the future Ambassadors fro the United States will be well and hand somely housed in his old London home i Prince's Gate. The house is a very fin and roomy one, for it consists really o two houses, an addtiion having been mad by Mr. Morgan to store his art treasure The place was lent to the Governme during the war, and is in need of mu repair, but that will not take long no that the United States Government hav decided to accept the gift offered by th late Mr. Morgan in his will.

Rumours as to forthcoming changes i the Church of England are constant cropping up, and it may be that there something in them. It is once aga asserted that the Archbishop of Cante bury means to retire before very lon and that the Bishop of Winchester wi do the same. The question of a successo to the Primate will be a matter for muc consideration on the part of the Prim Minister's advisers.

IRISH OFFICERS' DISTINGUISHED WAR SERVICES.

In a supplement to the London Gazette, it i announced that the King of the Belgians ha been pleased to confer the Order de la Mérite Agricole (Officer) upon Temporary Captain E. Michael Cahill (Royal Army Veterinary Corps) for distinguished service during the late war. For similar services, His Majesty the Emperor of Japan has made the following awards:—Order of the Rising Sun (4th Class)—Major Gordon le Roy Burnham, Inniskilling Dragoons. (5th Class)—Captain Robert Millington Synge, Coldstream Guards (Special Reserve).

M. BRIAND'S TRIUMPH.

The Supreme Council meets in Paris on Mon day, says The Times. Mr. Lloyd George, who with Lord Curzon, will represent Great Britain will leave London for France to-morrow morn ing. Signor Giolitti will not be present at th Conference owing to the meeting of the Italian Parliament on Wednesday, and Italy will b represented by Count Sforza, Minister fo Foreign Affairs. M. Briand secured an over whelming vote of confidence in the French Chamber yesterday, the voting being 47 against 68. He will now be in a position t attend the meeting of the Supreme Counci "with," as he phrased it in his vigorous repl to the critics of his declaration of policy, "al the dignity and with all the liberty due to the Prime Minister of France."

A SEPARATE AIR MINISTER.

The appointment of Mr. Churchill to the Colonial Office seems likely to have far-reaching consequences, says the Parliamentary Correspondent of The Times. There is a general expectation that a change will be made in the responsibilities of the Minister. Hitherto the Secretary for War has always been the Minister for Air. It is thought in many quarters, although nothing has yet been done in the matter, that this control of the two Services by one Minister will now come to an end. Nothing, it is said, but the personality of Mr. Churchill would have made it possible for the arrangement to have lasted so long. It is further argued that, desirable as it might conceivably be to have a Ministry of Defence co-ordinating under one head the Naval, Land, and Air Forces of the country, the possibility of continuing the Air Ministry under the Secretary for War, at a time when the air enters so largely into all naval problems, is out of the question. It is, therefore, assumed in some quarters that a Minister for Air will be appointed in addition to the Secretary for War, and independent of him.

WAR OFFICE CHANGES.

It is stated in Ministerial circles, says The Times, that Lord Lee of Fareham is likely to succeed Mr. Churchill as Secretary of State for War. It is also believed that Colonel Amery will leave the Colonial Office and become Under Secretary for War and the chief spokesman of the War Office in the House of Commons.

A RESPITE FOR AUSTRIA.

News received in London yesterday, states The Times, indicates that Austria, though nearing the rocks, has not yet made shipwreck. For the moment there is calm, by the grace of the workers and the good fortune of the Government, which has been able to secure postponement of the meeting of Parliament until Tuesday next. Had Parliament met on Thursday, as fixed, the Government would have been seriously embarrassed by a motion on the part of the Social Democrats to declare the Union of Austria and Germany. The only hope that the Government has of continuing in office is that before Parliament meets some announcement of an encouraging character may come from Paris.

JAPANESE CROWN PRINCE'S WORLD TOUR.

The Tokyo Correspondent of The Times says: It is authoritatively, but unofficially, announced that the Crown Prince will leave Japan in the spring on a tour of the world, visiting England first. The Asahi says that the Heir to the Throne will travel in the battleship Katori, and that Admiral Count Togo will be the chief member of his suite. After presenting a letter from the Emperor to King George, the Crown Prince will stay some time in England, and afterwards go to France, Belgium, and Italy. He may also visit Rumania to return Prince Carol's visit to Japan, if conditions in the Balkans will permit of his doing so. Crossing the Atlantic, he will see Mr. Harding, who will have been installed as President of the United States. The Crown Prince's tour, which is fully official, will last about twelve months. Though several Princes of the blood have been to Europe, this is the first time, the Asahi says, that a Crown Prince of Japan has travelled abroad.

AN INCOMPLETE SHOCK.

A young girl gave the spectators a bad fright during some parachute experiments at Le Bourget Aerodrome yesterday, says the Paris Correspondent of The Times. Shortly before her adventure two men jumped, one after the other, from an aeroplane flying something over 600 feet, and after the usual swift drop their parachutes opened out, and they landed safely. Then the girl, Mlle. Jacquart, a shorthand writer to the League of Pilots, went up. The pilot took her up over 600 feet, but as the girl misunderstood the signals, and did not jump out of the machine, he began to descend, thinking she was not going to attempt the feat. Then, when they were only 180 feet up, the girl, who was not used to flying, and apparently unaware that the machine had come down so low, made her leap. The horrified spectators expected to see her dash to the ground, but just in time the parachute opened out, and she landed unhurt, the only calm person at the aerodrome.

BERLIN'S GAMBLING FEVER.

In a message to The Times, the Berlin Correspondent of the paper says:—A Berlin sporting newspaper, in an article advocating the licensing of bookmakers, says that there has lately been an enormous increase in betting, both in Berlin and in the provinces. On race day in Berlin from five to six million marks (£20,000 to £24,000) are put on the totalisator alone, and the same amount with the bookmakers on the course, while certainly no less is put on with bookmakers in Berlin. It is estimated that similar amounts are put on in the provinces. Before the war one Berlin bookmaker's office turned over 1,000,000 marks (£50,000 at par) daily in bets. Since the war the gambling spirit has gained a hold that exceeds all expectations.

GLASGOW SHIPYARD CLOSING DOWN.

Following their decision to restrict the output of ships on account of the high cost of production, the Lloyd's Royal Belge (Great Britain), Ltd., have resolved to suspend operations in their Glasgow shipyards, and already eight hundred employés have been paid off. Only a few men have been retained for the purpose of completing a ship launched towards the end of last year. This work will be finished in a month's time, after which the shipyard will be closed.

This means a loss in weekly wages of about four thousand pounds.

AUSTRIAN CRISIS.

URGENCY OF CREDITS.

VIEWS OF THE MINISTER IN LONDON.

Reuter's representative last evening had an interview with the Austrian Minister in London, who expressed the following views on the present economic and political crisis existing in his country. The resolutions of the approaching Inter-Allied Conference in Paris will be of such vital importance for the Austrian people that I consider it my duty, not only to approach the British Government at the eleventh hour with an urgent appeal on behalf of my unfortunate country, but also to put her deplorable condition once more before public opinion in this country. The situation in Vienna is rapidly approaching a decisive crisis as the result of the bitter disappointment which the Austrian people feel at the non-fulfilment of hopes which, in view of the promises given to them, they had a right to attach to the reconstruction scheme of the Reparation Commission. It was for the completion of this programme that they waited, and bore, with exemplary patience, unspeakable hardships and privations. Now they fear, as a result of unfavourable news which came through to Vienna of the recent negotiations in Paris concerning a credit scheme for Austria, unanimously adopted by the Vienna section of the Reparation Commission, and sanctioned by the Reparation Commission in Paris, that they may no longer look for their salvation in this direction. This disappointment is the keynote to many stormy manifestations in favour of union with Germany, or, at least, a plebiscite on the subject of that union. The Austrian Government, loyally carrying out the obligations put upon them by the Peace Treaty, strive to overcome this movement, but, in view of the deplorable state of affairs in Austria—the disastrous under-feeding of her population, the almost entire stoppage of her industries, the ever-increasing depreciation of her exchange, amounting to a complete blockade of the country, and the appalling rise in the cost of living—the Government find their authority waning more and more, and, if the coming Paris Conference passes again without any resolutions for the adequate and speedy assistance of Austria, no one can vouch for the consequence which would arise out of the despair engendered by renewed disappointment of such magnitude. In view of the still threatening danger from the East, and the unrest smouldering in the newly-created National States, there is no need to point out the grave dangers lurking behind the complete and final collapse of Austria, and the consequences entailed thereby. Although the present moment is very unfavourable for raising the money for necessary credits, yet, in view of the situation described, this outlay seems imperative, and it will, moreover, prove a productive investment, inasmuch as it opens the way for the resumption of trade between this country and Austria.

Reuter's Agency understands that, according to the latest telegrams received in British official quarters, the meeting of the Vienna Parliament, which was to have taken place on Thursday, has been postponed until Tuesday next.

FALLING FOOD PRICES.

GOVERNMENT BUTTER DOWN TO 3/- A POUND.

The Food Controller announces that the maximum retail price of Government butter will be reduced from 3s. 4d. to 3s. per lb. on and from Monday February 7. Supplies have now improved, and there will be no restrictions by the Ministry of the quantities distributed through its registered suppliers to wholesalers and retailers. The public should have no difficulty in purchasing all the Government butter that they require. The butter now being distributed is from recent arrivals of the best quality.

REDUCED PORK PRICES IN TUAM.

Pigs were sold at Tuam monthly fair at £5 4s. a cwt., a reduction on last month's price of 18s. a cwt.

THE IRISH RAILWAYS.

N.U.R. AND THE GREAT NORTHERN CRISIS.

A meeting of authorised representatives of the Dublin Branches of the National Union of Railwaymen will be held on Sunday, for the purpose of dealing with the position on the Great Northern Railway. It is understood that the proceedings will be conducted in private.

According to a statement by Mr. Bermingham, Irish Secretary of the N.U.R., the view taken by the men is that, if a railway crisis is precipitated, the responsibility must rest with the directors of the G.N.R., and the men expect to have the sympathy of the country in whatever action they consider necessary to effect the reinstatement of the men without conditions.

GERMAN GOODS.

CUSTOMS DEFRAUDED.

In the Edinburgh Sheriff's Court yesterday, two traders, Solomon Gordon, of Irongate, Glasgow, and Robert Dunlop, of Candleriggs, Glasgow, were charged with declaring German goods on importation at Leith under their true value. The goods were accordeons from Leipzig, and in one case the Customs were defrauded out of £18 and in the other of £15. Five different consignments of accordeons were sent to Leith by the same steamer, and the Customs were struck by the discrepancies shown in the values returned. It transpired that the trader in Germany had sent over two invoices to his customers in this country, one with a false and the other with a true value. He explained to his customers that the false invoice was for Customs purposes.

Gordon was fined £250, and Dunlop, whose business was smaller, £150.

EMPLOYMENT OF EX-SERVICE MEN.

MEETING OF THE DUBLIN SELECTIVE COMMITTEE.

The monthly meeting of the Dublin Selective Committee for the Employment and Training of ex-Service Men was held in the offices of the Appointments and Training Branch of the Ministry of Labour, 65 Merrion square, Dublin, on the 18th instant—Mr. W. Kaye-Parry, M.A., B.E., F.R.I.B.A., in the chair. Amongst the officials present were Mr. L. E. Berkeley, Acting Controller and the manager of the Tipperary Training Centre.

The Secretary reported that during the past year 254 meetings of Committees, Interviewing Boards, and Appointments Interviewing Panels had been held, and he thanked the members who had ungrudgingly given up so much valuable time to assist in the work of re-settlement of ex-service men in civil life. The Interviewing Boards, which dealt with applications for training, had considered 249 applications during 1920, and the total number of grants made to date was 404, exclusive of grants awarded for training under the auspices of the Irish Education Office and the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland. The total number of grants made by the different Government departments administering professional and business training was 1,876.

Turning to the employment of ex-officers and men of similar education, it was reported that during 1920, in Dublin alone, 1,055 were placed in employment, and in all Ireland a total of 2,561. It was pointed out that the number of names upon the Appointments Register was now 760, which is an increase as compared with a few months past. This is probably accounted for by the present depression in trade, which has resulted in a decrease in the number of vacancies notified and a corresponding increase in the number of candidates available.

Mr. Berkeley spoke on the occupational training of disabled men, and reported that proposals were under consideration for extending and improving the facilities for this purpose available to the Training Committee at the Tipperary Training Centre, which he hoped would eventually be able to accommodate a considerably increased number of disabled men.

Mr. Townsend, a member of the voluntary Committee which administered the Tipperary Training Centre, appealed for co-operation, and urged the importance of ensuring, before a man entered on a training course, that the course was suitable for him, and that the man was qualified to take advantage of it.

A discussion took place as to the means to be adopted in order to ensure that every man was suitable for the work in which he was to be trained, that his training was adequately supervised, and that satisfactory employment was found for him on the completion of his training.

CO-OPERATION BETWEEN GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS.

Mr. Berkeley outlined the advantage for these purposes of the establishment of an instructional factory. He also reported the effect of an interview with the Regional Director of the Ministry of Pensions for the South of Ireland, which resulted in a very satisfactory understanding as to the means to be adopted to secure close co-operation between the two departments in assisting ex-service men to obtain employment or training. It was hoped that each department would be able to make effective use of the machinery of the other, and that, in particular, the Local War Pension Committees, which were in close contact with ex-service men throughout the country, would assist the Ministry of Labour in getting into touch with those who required training or employment. In the case of the disabled men who were undertraining by the Ministry of Pensions, particulars would be supplied to the Ministry of Labour some time before the training was completed, so that suitable employment should, if possible, be made available for them as soon as they were ready for it.

AMBUSH IN DUBLIN.

POLICE LORRY BOMBED.

SIX MEN ARRESTED.

ONE BADLY WOUNDED.

A report from Dublin Castle states that a Sinn Fein ambush was frustrated yesterday morning at Tolka Bridge, in Drumcondra district. The ambush, the report states, was evidently intended for an attack on police cars coming from the dépôt at Gormanstown to the city. A wall at the place was neatly loopholed with small firing holes and bombs were already on the ground. The ambush party consisted of seven men, whose action had been anticipated by the authorities, to whom information had been conveyed earlier that concentration for an ambush was taking place. Parties of Auxiliary Police cadets were accordingly sent to the spot, and on their arrival there the ambushers fled. The police opened fire on them, and one of them was shot and wounded. It was found that he had bombs in his possession. Others ran and took cover wherever they could get it—in the gardens of adjacent houses, where they fell into the cadets' hands. Five prisoners were taken, each of whom was found in possession of a pistol and ammunition. One man escaped. There were no casualties among the police.

The following is the official military report:—

"At 11.30 this morning, on the Drumcondra road, in the vicinity of the bridge over the Tolka River, a lorry-load of R.I.C. was bombed. A party of Auxiliary Police immediately arrived on the scene and captured five of the ambushers, all of whom were in possession of arms and bombs.

"One of the ambushers was badly wounded. The Crown forces suffered no casualties."

THE SCENE OF THE AMBUSH.

The thoroughfare which was the scene of the incident is the main road from Dublin to Swords, along which the tramway line extends as far as Whitehall. On the Whitehall side of the bridge over the Tolka River there is on the right-hand side of the road a vacant space known as Clonturk Park, which in recent years has been cultivated as allotments. There is a wooden fence separating the allotments from the public thoroughfare. A large number of motor cars, with Auxiliary Constabulary, pass along Drumcondra road daily between the camps at Collinstown and Gormanstown and the city. Shortly before 11.30 a.m. a Crossley tender, containing an armed party of Constabulary, was seen descending the hill from Whitehall towards the city, travelling at a fast pace. Before it reached the Tolka Bridge two or three loud explosions were heard, and the car dashed across the bridge at an accelerated pace. It continued along the road towards the city, and when it had time to go about half a mile or so two other similar cars, containing Auxiliary Police, drove down from the city to the scene of the explosions.

Fire was immediately opened from the lorries, and a number of the Auxiliaries descended from the cars and rushed into Clonturk Park, through which the ambushers were fleeing. The police fired on them, and one man was brought down. The whole affair did not occupy more than a few minutes, and naturally the residents in the locality were greatly alarmed by the explosions and the shooting. Five men were captured. The wounded man was removed from Clonturk Park. He was badly injured. He appeared to have been shot in the lower part of the body and in the legs, and was losing much blood. He was carried by the Auxiliaries to the house No. 9 Shamrock villas, opposite the entrance to St. Patrick's College, and, after being given a glass of water, was placed in the lorry with the other prisoners and removed. Inquiries in the locality failed to establish the identity of the wounded man or of the other prisoners.

One onlooker stated that when the shooting took place he saw about twenty men running through the allotments, and later saw some of them being brought back in custody, while others made their way down the Richmond road.

During the day the locality was patrolled by strong forces of military and Auxiliaries, and several houses were searched. Naturally the affair created much excitement in the district, and last evening some of the shopkeepers in Drumcondra were covering their windows with boarding. On the left-hand side of the roadway, near the scene of the first explosions, the wall is marked as though by a bomb, while there are bloodstains on the footway outside the house to which the wounded man was carried. It would appear as though the bombs were thrown either from the roadway or from behind the wooden railings of the allotments.

SEARCHES AND ARRESTS IN DUBLIN.

Early yesterday afternoon a party of Auxiliary Police, who arrived in a motor lorry, raided the Oxford Billiard Rooms, Upper Sackville street, and made a thorough search of the premises and of all who happened to be there. They arrested two persons, one of whom was not known to those in the establishment, and the other was described as a commercial traveller who had been visiting the place for several years past. Both men were removed in custody, and are believed to be detained in Dublin Castle.

CRIME IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN CASTLE WEEKLY REVIEW.

The weekly review of conditions in Ireland issued from Dublin Castle states:—

The number of serious outrages reported for the week ended the 15th instant was 57, a considerably lower figure than that for the previous week (103). The decrease was mainly due to a falling off in the number of raids on mails, and to the cessation of raids upon the offices of rate collectors, a new form of Sinn Fein activity noted in last week's report. Police casualties for the past week numbered thirteen (three killed and ten wounded). Two of the mortal casualties were sustained in an ambush of a police lorry near Limerick on the 13th instant, and the third case was that of a member of the Ulster Special Constabulary, who was killed in an ambush near Cullyhanna, Bessbrook district (County Armagh), on the same date. A civilian postman, who was conveying mails under escort of the police patrol, was also killed on this occasion.

Five attacks on occupied R.I.C. barracks were made during the week. The attack was unsuccessful in each case, and resulted in no casualties to the defending garrisons or damage to the barracks.

ARRESTS AND SEIZURES.

A very satisfactory military operation took place on the 17th instant in the martial law area, where a detachment of the Essex Regiment surprised a party of men yesterday in the act of preparing an ambush near Timoleague (County Cork). After an exchange of shots the troops succeeded in surrounding and capturing twenty-five of the raiders. This reverse may have a salutary effect in checking lawless activities of this kind in the West Cork district, which has been one of the most disturbed parts of the country. Several important seizures of arms and ammunition were effected in the martial law area during the week. The seizures included a Lewis gun, with four fully charged magazines; 1,000 rounds of rifle and revolver ammunition, and a quantity of bombs, gelignite, and other explosives. Fifty-one arrests for outrages and political offences were effected during the week ended the 15th instant. Seventy-five trials of civilians by court-martial took place and sixty-one convictions were obtained. Sentence of ten years' penal servitude was imposed in three cases, for the offence of kidnapping a Great Northern Railway signalman on the 29th October last, in connection with the recent railway dispute. It was proved that each of the prisoners was armed with a revolver when committing the offence. Seven years' penal servitude was imposed in two cases and three years' penal servitude in one case for the possession of arms and ammunition.

One hundred and thirty-one orders for internment were made during the week, bringing the total number of persons now interned to 1,429.

The week's recruiting for the Royal Irish Constabulary shows good results. The net addition to the strength of the Regular Force is 201, an increase of 124 over that of last week. The net increase in the strength of the Auxiliary Division is 54.

INCIDENTS IN THE PROVINCES.

A number of men were arrested in Loughrea during the week.

All the Councillors elected on the Sinn Fein ticket in Youghal are now prisoners or "on the run."

Claims for malicious injury amounting to £12,060 were heard at Dungannon Quarter Sessions yesterday before Judge Linehan, K.C.

Patrick McCarthy, grocer's assistant, Nenagh, was arrested yesterday, and taken to the military barracks. McCarthy is a native of Charleville, Co. Cork.

Our Youghal Correspondent states that Dr. T. Kennedy, Chairman of the Urban Council and the medical officer of the workhouse, was arrested by military yesterday morning at his residence in Youghal.

A number of ecclesiastical students, returning from their Christmas vacation to resume work at St. Peter's College, Wexford, were searched on their arrival in the town.

Police visited the Hibernian Hall in Castle street, Armagh, last night, and took away a large number of bandoliers and haversacks belonging to the Irish National Volunteers which were stored in the hall.

Yesterday the Mullingar District Asylum was searched by military. During the search numbers of armed military remained in the grounds and in the hall of the institution.

Frederick McCarville, employed in a Dundalk hardware shop, was arrested yesterday and conveyed to the military barracks. He is a native of Ballyshannon, Co. Donegal.

POLICE BARRACKS BESIEGED.

NUMEROUS ATTACKS IN CO. TIPPERARY.

THE COUNTY CLARE AMBUSH.

An official report issued yesterday in Dublin states:—

Eight police barracks in North and South Tipperary were attacked within twenty-four hours of one another, including Dovea, Holycross, Shevry, Golding's Cross, and Templetuohy, in North Tipperary; Golden and Ballinure in the Cashel district of Southern Tipperary. In all cases the attackers were beaten off, and there were no police casualties.

Ballinaise Barrack, Killenaule district, Co. Mayo, was attacked last night by over one hundred men, who, after a stiff fight, were beaten off. The police suffered no injuries.

Our Clonmel Correspondent telegraphs:—Attacks on police barracks were carried out in various districts all over South Tipperary during the last four nights. The stations attacked included Carrick, Glenbower, Ballinure, Lisronagh, Kilmanahan, Dovea, Holycross etc. In some instances, it is said, 200 men took part in the attacks, which in all cases were unsuccessful, the attackers withdrawing after an exchange of firing. No casualties are reported. As a rule Crown forces were "rushed" to the besieged stations, being attracted by Verey lights and explosions.

GOLDEN AND HOLYCROSS BARRACKS.

Our Cashel Correspondent states:—Golden R.I.C. Barrack, about four miles from Cashel, was the object of an attack by armed men on Thursday night. The firing began as early as 7 o'clock, and lasted for about an hour, when the raiders withdrew. It is stated that bombs were thrown at the barrack, and that persistent rifle fire prevailed, but so strongly fortified was the building that little damage, beyond the smashing of a few panes of glass, is to be recorded. When the first volley was heard by the defenders they instantly replied with bombs and rifle fire, and sent up Verey lights, which were quickly observed in Cashel and as far away as Clonmel. Police and military travelled from Cashel to Golden, but on approaching the village the last shots were hard. It was a bright moon-lit night. Trees were felled along the roads leading to Golden and the telegraph wires were cut. It is stated that the affair resulted in no casualties.

About mid-day yesterday the public in Cashel received the first intimation of attacks on Ballinure and Holycross Barracks, 6 and 8 miles respectively from Cashel. It is stated that the attacks on these stations were simultaneous with the Golden affair, and that there, too, the raiders withdrew after concentrating fire on the barracks for over an hour. A few miles from Ballinure stone barricades were built on the road to Killeanule, five miles away, and obstructions were also made near Holycross, trenches being cut in the road and the telegraphic communication severed. No casualties are said to have occurred.

THE SIXMILEBRIDGE AMBUSH.

NAMES OF THE VICTIMS.

Further details of the ambush at Sixmilebridge on Wednesday show that the following men were killed:—District Inspector Clarke, Lurgan; Sergeant Michael Molloy, Peter's Well, Galway; Constables John Doogue, Killeshan, Carlow; Michael Moran, Liscromwell, Castlebar; W. J. Smith, Chalk Pit Cottages, Sarre West, Birchington, Kent; Francis Morris, Salisbury road, Richmond, London.

Two constables escaped. The police lorry was burned after the fight, and all the arms were carried away by the attackers.

Our Limerick Correspondent states:—District Inspector Clarke, who was in charge of the Constabulary at Sixmilebridge, was well-known in Limerick City as an efficient and peace-loving officer, who had determinedly set himself against anything in the nature of reprisals, and there is regret at his untimely end. Where the ambush took place is well wooded, and afforded a screen for any hostile party that might be in wait there. The police party started on a Crossley car, the occupants, in addition to the District Inspector, being Sergeants Molloy and Egan, Constables Doogue, Moran, W. J. Smith, Siive, Morris, Prior, and Silvewright, who acted as driver of the car. When the party reached Belvoir, a heavy volley was discharged from the wood at the police, who attempted to reply, but they were overpowered in the rapid concentrated fire that followed. The District Inspector was shot outright in the opening stages of the fire, and the others a little later, as they were trying to retire to shelter. This is borne out by the fact that the bodies of the men were found later on the roadway, with some distance between them. Constable Prior and Constable Silvewright, the driver, escaped unhurt.

Sergeant Egan was seriously wounded. He was struck on the right thigh, and he had his right arm fractured in two places. Constable Silve was slightly wounded, and he and Sergeant Egan were removed to the Military Hospital at New Barracks in Limerick. The attacking party at the close of the encounter withdrew, after, it is stated, having destroyed the car and taken the rifles of the dead and wounded policemen, except the rifle of Sergeant Egan, who succeeded in retaining it.

Military and Constabulary were afterwards sent into the district, and there was an uneasy feeling among the people. There were no arrests reported up to Thursday night, but it is alleged that two houses were burned and five others wrecked.

THE ABBEYLEIX MURDER.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Our Maryborough Correspondent telegraphs:—The widow of Geoffrey McDonald, who was shot dead on Thursday morning, near Abbeyleix, states that three men called at the house. One came in and pulled her husband out of the bed, and then went out to the other two, and brought in a shotgun, and shot her husband through the heart. They then decamped, never having spoken a word. They had blackened faces, and also wore masks. Some time ago her husband had been court-martialled at a Republican court in Ballinakill, and sentenced to be deported.

After the shooting three young men in the Ballinakill district, named Muldowney, Maher, and O'Hara, the last an ex-soldier, were arrested and taken in a lorry to Maryborough.

ARRESTS IN COUNTY SLIGO.

Our Sligo Correspondent telegraphs that wholesale arrests have been made in the Tobercurry district of Sligo, and all the available members of the Tobercurry Board of Guardians are at present lodged in Sligo Prison, together with the Clerk. The charge against them has not been disclosed, but it is suggested that the arrests are the result of a recent meeting, at which it is alleged the Board made provision in its rate estimate for the upkeep of Irish Volunteer police.

DUBLIN CASTLE REPORTS.

Major MacKinnon, of the Auxiliary Police Division, was fired on recently by five men at Ballymullan, Tralee, but escaped uninjured.

A process server, residing in Cahirciveen, was kidnapped by armed and masked men, who, however, liberated him the following day.

At half-past eight o'clock on Wednesday evening a constable was "held up" in Cork by four men, who deprived him of his revolver.

Yesterday morning a farmer residing at Dundruff went to Mass at a neighbouring church. He drove in a cart, and when he reached the chapel he left his horse and cart outside the building while the Service was proceeding. After Mass he found when he went to get his horse that the animal had been stolen. A note was left in the cart stating that the horse had been taken by the I.R.A., as the farmer had refused to subscribe to the funds of the organisation.

The residence of a gentleman living in Midleton, Co. Cork, martial law area, was forcibly entered a few nights ago and large quantities of clothing, wine, and spirits were taken away.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR IN MARYBOROUGH.

EX-SOLDIER SHOT DEAD.

A telegram from Maryborough states that on Thursday night armed men visited Lyster's lane, Maryborough, where they knocked at several houses. When they came to the house occupied by Mr. Thomas Lawless, who was in bed, he got up and went to the door. Before he could open it a shot was fired outside through the door, and Lawless was struck in the side. He fell immediately. When the door was opened a man fired another shot, and he and another man entered the house. The second man lifted the wounded man into the bed, and he died there ten minutes later. Lawless had served for four and a half years in France, and was demobilised nine months ago. He was 47 years of age. No one appears to be able to assign any cause for the shooting.

CO. LIMERICK CLERGYMAN IN CUSTODY.

The Rev. William Bentley, M.A., Protestant Rector of Fealebridge, Abbeyfeale, was taken from the Rectory by Crown forces, who arrived in a lorry from Tralee. The Rev. Mr. Bentley has been in rather delicate health for some months past. He is very popular in the district.

AMBUSH IN CORK.

POLICE SERGEANT KILLED.

A HEAD CONSTABLE'S LUCKY ESCAPE.

Our Cork Correspondent, telegraphing last night, says:—A report reached Cork to-day of an ambush of a party of policemen some distance from Waterfall, about five miles from Cork. The ambushed party consisted only of two policemen—Head Constable Larkin and Sergeant Bloxham, who are stationed at Ballincollig.

They left the barrack early this morning on bicycles and rode to Waterfall, where they had some business to transact. Leaving Waterfall they were apparently journeying to Cork when they were unexpectedly fired on from behind a fence in a secluded and lonely part of the road.

A volley of shots rang out, and Sergeant Bloxham swayed on his machine and crashed to the ground. Head Constable Larkin replied to the fire of the assailants, and, continuing to cycle, managed to make good his escape. It is stated, however, that he was slightly wounded. The attackers are believed to have suffered no casualties.

Later large forces of police and military journeyed to the scene of the ambush from Ballincollig and Cork. Sergeant Bloxham's body was still lying on the road near his bicycle, where he had fallen, and it was found that he was dead. From the nature of his wounds it is believed that death was almost instantaneous.

Exhaustive searches, which, as far as can be ascertained, were without result, were carried out by reinforcements of police and military. At the time of the ambush the police were inquiring into an outrage in the district on Wednesday, when a West Cork mail train was fired into.

RELEASE OF MR. SHARMAN CRAWFORD, D.L.

Our Cork Correspondent last night telegraphed:—Mr. A. F. Sharman Crawford, D.L. Chairman of the Cork Technical School Committee, and one of the proprietors of Messrs. Beamish and Crawford, Ltd., who, with several of his employés, was arrested on Thursday as the result of explosives having been found in his brewery, was released this morning. His chief accountant, Mr. Le Fleury, and his foreman, Mr. Mansfield, are still in custody.

GENERAL STRICKLAND ON MARTIAL LAW.

HIS LETTER TO CORK.

AN INTERESTING INTERVIEW.

Writing from Cork on Thursday, the Special Correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says:—

Major-General Strickland gave me an interview this morning, in the course of which he discussed the effects of martial law so far as they have yet been observed from the point of view of the military authorities. Many people, he said, had expected martial law to show immediate visible results, and were now inclined to say that it had failed because that expectation had not been justified.

He had never expected a rapid success, and for this reason—before martial law was imposed members of the so-called murder gangs were already finding it impossible to live at home. They had to clear out into other parts of the country, and had gathered together, particularly in the Macroom district and in Tipperary and Kilkenny counties. There they were organised in flying columns. The first effect of martial law had been to make these columns more active than ever. The definite result, which was now being accomplished, and in which they had already been largely successful, was the breaking up of the organisation of the I.R.A. Until martial law was declared that organisation was a remarkably efficient one—the formations of the Republican force were almost as well organised as those of the British Army. It might be too optimistic to say that the present operations of the I.R.A. were in the nature of a dying kick, but he believed that that was the fact. How long they could keep going in their present disorganised state was a matter of conjecture, but it was only a question of time.

THE SURRENDER OF ARMS.

Asked what results had, so far, been obtained from the proclamation demanding the surrender of arms, General Strickland admitted that it was probably true to say that the number of arms personally surrendered could be counted on one hand, but in one way or another they were getting the arms in. He instanced the discovery quite close to Cork yesterday of four rifles, eleven shotguns, 850 rounds of ammunition, and other military equipment, and said that that was the second "find" they had had of the same kind in the neighbourhood of Cork alone within a week.

It was not, he thought, to be expected that the real rebel, who did not recognise the authority of the Crown, would hand his arms in, but they had good reason to believe that throughout the martial-law area a great many arms were being buried, or hidden in other ways, outside the houses. This did not mean that they were not being used, but the men who used them were hard to find with the arms in their possession. In many cases arms would be brought out for use at the scene of an ambush or other attack, by women, who concealed them in their skirts. The army was not making war on women, and soldiers never interfered with women unless they had direct evidence against them, so that the difficulty of getting hold of arms which were disposed of in this way could be imagined.

SUGGESTIONS TO CORK CITIZENS.

Discussing the suggestion made in his letter to the Acting Lord Mayor, that the people of Cork might be expected to play an active part in "purging their city of assassins," General Strickland said that what he had in mind was the sort of organisation that the people of an English town would probably set up if they found their district being made the scene of operations like those of the "murder gang." He imagined they would hold a meeting and form some sort of a Vigilance Committee to police their town. Under present conditions, of course, any force formed for such a purpose would be unarmed, but that would not prevent it from assisting in the intelligence work—the collection of information, which was the first condition of any success in putting down crime.

Fifteen months ago, when he first arrived in Ireland, Clare was the hotbed of Republican activity. He suggested at that time to a number of leading people in the county that that was what they should do, and was met with the reply that the forces of intimidation were too strong for such a plan to succeed. Under martial law, he thought, the situation was different, and that there was some chance for well-disposed people to play the part he was suggesting.

One rather gathered, adds the correspondent, that General Strickland was not too optimistic himself about the result of his appeal to the people of Cork. I suggested to him that the operations of the murder gang sprang too directly from political origins for the analogy of his hypothetical English town to hold good in the present state of Irish feeling, but, as might be expected, he insisted that the political aspect of the matter was not his business. He wanted peace in Ireland, he said, as much as any Republican, and he described the work on which his division is at present engaged as the most unpleasant that a soldier could be called upon to perform.

BALLYKINLAR CAMP.

TREATMENT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS.

A Cork gentleman, having forwarded through the medium of the Belfast Y.M.C.A. a newspaper cutting, with reference to treatment of prisoners in Ballykinlar camp to the Commandant, Lieutenant-Colonel E. Little, the following reply has been forwarded by Colonel Little:—

"The statements made in the newspaper you enclose are such a distortion of the true facts that I attach below a few answers to them." The prisoners receive fuel at a larger scale than the troops quartered at Ballykinlar camp. They have the same bedding—viz., bed-boards, straw mattress, pillow, and 4 blankets. Visits are not allowed. Newspapers, as chosen by the prisoners, are received by them daily. Electric light is in every hut occupied by the prisoners, and is on from 4 p.m. to 10.15 p.m., and from 7.30 a.m. to 9 a.m. Prisoners are allowed to receive as many letters and parcels as arrive for them. Parcels are opened and censored in the presence of prisoners' representatives. A week before Christmas a Roman Catholic priest was appointed Chaplain to the prisoners; he has free access to the prisoners at all times, and holds Mass every morning. A large building has been set aside as a church, and has been provided with a tabernacle and Communion Service by the military authorities. Until the 18th December prisoners requiring goods from the canteen had to write an order. The goods were then procured for them, and handed to them in the course of the next day or two. On the 18th December a canteen was inaugurated in the prisoners' lines. The canteen is managed and run entirely by the prisoners themselves, and they can have as much stock as they wish to. To January 1st £280 worth of goods had been passed into this canteen for sale. The following is the scale of rations recently brought into force. It is considerably larger than the soldiers' ration:—Bread, 16oz. daily; meat, 10oz. 3 days a week; bacon, 8oz. 3 days a week; fish, 21oz. one day a week; potatoes, 10oz. daily; vegetables, 4oz. daily; split peas, 2oz. daily; tea, ½oz. daily; cocoa, ½oz. daily; oatmeal, 1oz. daily; sugar, 2oz. daily; salt, ½oz. daily; butter, 1½oz. daily; milk, ½ pint daily.

MR. BONAR LAW AND IRELAND.

MURDER CAMPAIGN.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ALTERNATIVES.

Mr. Bonar Law, speaking in Edinburgh last night, referred to Ireland, which, he said, had been a difficulty for eight hundred years, and that difficulty was there when the Government took office. There was avowedly a conspiracy to break entirely the connection between Ireland and Great Britain, and that could not be done without endangering the vitality and security of the United Kingdom. (Applause.) It was not too much to say that, though often before there had been agitation and murder coupled with agitation, this, he thought, was the first time that, under the name of war, the avowed means by which their object was to be attained was the murder of the representatives of the British Crown.

In his opinion, there were only two ways of dealing with the position. They had either to give them what they wanted or they had to assert the power of the United Kingdom. There has been a good deal of talk about reprisals, he continued, but many of you will remember the time when Mr. Balfour was "Bloody Balfour," and when everything that was said now about the brutality of the police was said about him, and, believe me, when you have a state like this there will be excesses. But the nation fails, the Government fails, and this people fails, unless they are determined that, whatever methods may be applied, this country will not be coerced. (Applause.)

THE SINN FEIN POSITION.

MR. DE VALERA'S STATEMENT.

Mr. de Valera, in a message issued last night to the Irish people on the occasion of the second anniversary of the assembly of Dail Eireann, says:—No one could be base enough to barter away the cause for which so many of Ireland's sons have shed their blood. Though the armed bully was in their streets, and with cowardly insolence was taunting the Irish people with their powerlessness, the ancient heroism of their fathers was theirs also, and their suffering would surely not be in vain.

COMPENSATION AWARDS.

£100,000 GRANTED IN KERRY.

County Court Judge Cusack, at the Tralee Quarter Sessions, made awards for criminal injury claims to the extent of over £100,000. His Honour expressed the opinion that the Government would not pay any of these awards, and said that he was doubtful if any of them would ever be collected. The whole thing, he added, could only end in the financial as well as the moral bankruptcy of the country.

The Kerry County Council were awarded £40,000 for the burning of the County Hall, and several co-operative dairy societies were awarded large sums for the burning of their creameries by, as alleged, Crown forces.

The next-of-kin of murdered constables were also granted large awards.

His Honour remarked that he had given away thousands in respect of the various claims, but human life was far more valuable than a county hall or a creamery.

A BURNED CREAMERY.

Judge Pigot at the Limerick Quarter Sessions yesterday awarded the proprietors of the Kildimo Co-operative Creamery Company £2,000 compensation for the malicious burning of their premises on the night of the 8th October last.

FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE.

THE OUTBREAK AT ARKLOW.

RESTRICTIONS ON MOVEMENT OF STOCK.

The situation created by the outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease underwent no change yesterday, and the restrictions which it has been necessary for the English Ministry of Agriculture and the Department of Agriculture for Ireland to impose to prevent the spread of the disease continue to hold up the Irish cattle trade. So far neither Department has found itself in a position to modify the orders regarding the embargo on the shipment of cattle from Dublin and Waterford to cross-Channel ports owing to the grave dangers of the infection of stock in Great Britain. The reason that the shipping of cattle from the ports of Dublin and Waterford is forbidden, it was explained by an official of the Veterinary Branch of the Department of Agriculture yesterday, is, as stated in the Irish Times in its editorial article in yesterday's issue, that these ports are the natural ports of outlet for stock from the infected area. The Order also directs that stock shipped from other Irish ports must be slaughtered within four days. It should be pointed out that the restrictions imposed in the present instance constitute no departure from the ordinary procedure when an outbreak occurs, and are not so stringent as on the occasion of the last outbreak.

The outbreak has occurred on the farm of Mr. John C. Ruskell, at Ballyrichard, a short distance from the town of Arklow. Mr. Ruskell's stock consisted of some 74 animals, the greater proportion of which are cattle. Of these 14 were found to be affected, and have been killed as a precautionary measure. The Department of Agriculture has sent three Inspectors to the locality, in order that any fresh case of the disease that may occur may be detected at the earliest possible moment, and dealt with. These gentlemen have full power to take any action they may deem advisable within the Department's regulations.

The restrictions imposed in the immediate vicinity of the affected farm are very stringent. Within a radius of four miles regulations are in force which forbid the movement of hay or straw, except under licence from the Department. No animals may be moved from one place to another, and dogs must be kept under control, and not be allowed to wander about. The full scheduled area is inside a fifteen-mile radius. In this no movements of ruminants or swine—cattle, sheep, swine, and goats—are permitted. None of these animals is allowed to enter or leave the area, or to travel along any of the roads within it.

In a communication issued by the Department of Agriculture last evening, it was stated:—The farmers and people generally of the locality are co-operating helpfully in the measures taken, and bodies like the Cattle Traders' and Stock Owners' Association have assured the Department of their anxiety to assist in every way them can. The most important way in which the suppression of the disease can be assisted, it is well to note, is by all concerned (1) being watchful to see, as far as they can, that no animals are moved within the restricted district unauthorised, and (2) immediately reporting any suspicious symptoms of the disease that may come under their notice.

To facilitate the movement of animals necessary for meeting the local meat supply, and also for the feeding of stock, the Department have arranged that Inspectors will be available at a number of centres in the restricted area for the purpose of issuing licences. The centres and days for Inspectors' attendances are being arranged locally.

DUBLIN CROSS-CHANNEL SAILINGS TO BE REDUCED.

Owing to the embargo, one of the North Wall shipping lines, which at present runs a steamer for passengers, goods, and live stock every night from the Liffey, will "cut out" two sailings inwards and outwards, the deleted days being Wednesdays and Saturdays. Considerable unemployment must result among casual dockers at the port by the reduction in cross-Channel sailings.

OPENINGS FOR IRISH DRESSED MEAT FACTORIES.

In an interview with our Wexford Correspondent, Mr. S. A. O'Leary, manager, Wexford Meat Supply and Bacon Factory Co., Ltd., predicted that, with the restrictions on the shipment of fat cattle to England from Waterford and Dublin ports, all the fat cattle of the members of the company, who number about 3,000, will be dealt with on the company's premises in Wexford. There would be no difficulty in getting the best markets across Channel for the dressed meat. The spread of the disease to Ireland was another illustration of the pressing need for the establishment of more dead-meat industries in Ireland similar to that in Wexford.

Mr. O'Leary also conveyed to our Correspondent the information that arrangements were being made with his board of directors by the Department of Agriculture for the slaughter of the fat cattle, and the export of the dead meat from the affected areas, in the event of the restrictions being continued.

EFFECTS ON PROVINCIAL FAIRS.

The embargo was adversely felt at the monthly fair in Enniscorthy yesterday. There was virtually no demand for cattle, and very little business was done.

There was a poor demand at Castlerea Fair yesterday for the large supply of stock. No stock was bought for shipment. The cattle disposed of showed a drop of £5 each in price.

THE PARIS CONFERENCE.

The Prime Minister and party leave London early on Sunday morning for Paris to attend the Allied Conference. Mr. Lloyd George will take with him Mr. J. T. Davies and Mr. Philip Kerr, with other members of his secretarial staff. Earl Curzon will be accompanied by Sir Eyre Crowe, Permanent Foreign Secretary, and certain secretaries. The War Office and Admiralty will be represented by important Executive officers. It is expected that the sittings will be concluded during the ensuing week.

SPECIAL EXTRA.

M. BRIAND AND GERMANY.

QUESTION OF PAYMENT.

FRANCE'S POSITION.

A Paris telegram, dated Friday, says:—A vote of confidence in the Government was carried in the Chamber this evening by 475 votes against 68.

The Chamber was again crowded when the general debate on the policy of the new Cabinet was resumed, and M. Briand at once took occasion to reply to the critics of yesterday. His first words were:—The Chamber must grant or refuse its confidence in unequivocal fashion. The present is a grave moment, which will determine the course of policy of France for several years to come. It is necessary that there should be an understanding regarding the object we are pursuing. In a few days we are going to confer with our Allies, in an atmosphere of cordiality—an excellent preliminary for good work. The representative of the French Government must proceed to the Conference under conditions of freedom and dignity suitable to representatives of that great country. The representative of France must possess all the necessary freedom in negotiation. (Cheers.) Continuing, M. Briand said that his sole pre-occupation was the interest of France, in the highest degree, and in saying this he was sure that he was in agreement with the French people, who wanted not words, but deeds. France had not yet obtained payment of what was due to her, and it would be a negation of all justice if the authors of the disaster, who had attacked the civilised world in the person of France and Belgium, escaped retribution. Dealing with the question of payment by Germany, M. Briand said that he would not accept any a priori impossibility as to payment, but would only accept an impossibility that could be proved. He would distinguish between the impossibilities of the moment and the realities of the future. Referring to the lump sum scheme, he said that the Allies should ascertain what were the financial possibilities of Germany, and he added that it would be the work of a minute to fix a sum which would bind all the Allies in future. Germany at the present moment had reached her lowest point, and if the future were not held in reserve they would be making a fool's bargain. (Cheers.) Germany was working at full force, and her power of production was formidable. Either they must accept immediate provisional results and reserve the future or, in view of the obscurity of things, they must exact an immediate total sum and re-commence a war. (Cheers and some protests.) The Premier declared that he intended to retain all the good that the preceding Cabinet had accomplished, in conjunction with the Allies, and the new Cabinet would also endeavour to accomplish some good. He would approach the Allies with a view to obtaining maximum results, and he felt certain of arriving at immediate results. That was to the interest of all countries which were passing through a serious economic crisis. M. Briand read the following motion, proposed by M. Francois Arago and M. Fleury Ravamin, which the Government accepted as a vote of confidence:—"The Chamber, approving the Government's declarations, and trusting to it to affirm the rights of France, in agreement with our Allies, and to ensure a policy of broad national unity amongst all Republicans, in respect of the Republic's laws, and rejecting any addition to them, passes to the order of the day."

The Chamber then adopted the motion.

VISCOUNT FRENCH.

Telegraphing from Cannes on Friday, Reuter's Correspondent says:—Field-Marshal Viscount French, who has been spending a few days here, left to-day for Paris, en route for London. He will later proceed to Ireland.

SECESSIONS FROM LIBERAL PARTY.

The resignations of Sir William Robertson, of Dunfermline, and Sir Robert Lockhart, of Kirkcaldy, Chairman and Vice-Chairman, respectively, of the Scottish Liberal Federation, were considered at a meeting of the Executive in Edinburgh last night. In his letter, Sir William Robertson said that there was evidence in some of the resolutions adopted by the Ayr conference of a determination to force differences among Scottish Liberals to a point where a split in the Party became inevitable. The attitude of the Federation was a departure from the traditional policy of giving, without question, its active support to the candidate selected by the local association.

THE LIBERAL PROGRAMME.

The Daily Chronicle, in a leading article entitled "Hybrid Programme for the National Liberal Federation," agrees with several of the proposals mentioned in the report, but states that, on the other hand, it dallies in some directions with revolution, in others with the stupidest reaction. On the revolutionary side it advocates a levy on capital. On the reactionary side, perhaps the worst blot is its programme for agriculture. It wants to put back the clock to complete laissez faire. The farmer shall grow what he likes, and the problem of the country's food supply is thrown to the winds.

THE ALLIED CONFERENCE.

The Daily Telegraph says:—It may be expected that at the Allied Conference there will be genuine agreement as to the policy to be pursued by the Allies in Western Europe. A reasonable and practical decision should be reached on questions of German reparations and German disarmament. They should come to a definite decision if they can, on the Arab question, on Trans-Caucasian Republics, and on Bolshevik advances and enterprises. Complete understanding and reasoned policy are badly needed here.

The Morning Post, referring to the forthcoming Conference of the Allied Premiers, expresses the hope that public opinion in Allied countries will not expect too much from the meetings. On the necessity for Germany to pay British public opinion is solid. The question is how is it to be done. The experts can work out the details, but the only effective instrument for extracting the gold from the reluctant German is Anglo-French solidarity.

SUGAR TO BE UNCONTROLLED.

The Daily Mail learns that arrangements between the Food Controller and the sugar trade are practically complete for the total removal of sugar from control on March 31st. As butter and bacon will be freed on the same date there will be only wheat left under control.

BELFAST DUNLOP SHAREHOLDERS.

Convened at the suggestion of Mr. David Adams, J.P., a meeting of Dunlop shareholders to consider the present situation was held in Belfast yesterday, Mr. John Tyrrell, J.P., presiding. The proceedings were private, and afterwards the Press were informed that a large and representative committee had been appointed to take any necessary steps to safeguard the interests of the shareholders in Belfast and adjoining counties.

MR. THOMAS AND IRELAND.

Addressing a meeting of his constituents in Derby last night, Mr. J. H. Thomas, turning to Irish affairs, remarked that Sir Edward Carson, Mr. Bonar Law, and the present Lord Chancellor organised military force in order to resist the law, and stopped the Home Rule Bill from becoming operative. Armed force in Ulster succeeded in preventing the Irish national cause being successful, and, he added, you can hardly blame people in Ireland for saying—"I am imitating the example the other people have given." The cause of the Irish Volunteers and the Sinn Fein revolution in Ireland was because they saw open rebellion triumph, supported by the British people. Ireland is now an armed camp, and the result is that all discussion between us and America on the merits of questions is warped. Australia and Canada are in a like position, and the good name of England has become a laughing stock. Mr. Thomas suggested that the Government dare not publish the Strickland report, and the audience hissed and groaned as he dealt with the treatment of Kevin Barry by the Crown forces.

YOUNG WOMAN'S SUICIDE.

A verdict of suicide during temporary insanity was returned at an inquest yesterday on Gladys May Griffen, a well-connected young woman of 25, who suffered from hemorrhage of the lungs, and committed suicide in a Liverpool hospital where she was a private patient. When her mother visited her the deceased girl handed her a letter, telling her not to open it until she reached home. This contained the following phrases:—"I am broken-hearted to leave you all, but don't grieve. There is £200 in my pocket. Have it between you. Do not be too sad. Perhaps it is for the best." Afterwards the deceased girl swallowed a ring and the glass top of a scent bottle. The next day she was found dead by the window of her room with the window cords around her throat.

THOUGHTS AND THEORIES.

WAGES OF LEARNING.

PROFESSORS AND STOCKBROKERS.

THE TEST OF PANTOMIME.

(BY C. H. B.)

THE SUPPLY OF SCHOLARS.

Glancing casually through the Report of the Royal Commission on Dublin University, I see a reference to the recent "Ordinance" by which future Junior Fellows will receive a salary—the Commission decently refrained from calling it an honorarium—of £440 a year, with a "rise" of fifty thumping pounds at the end of every four years until the princely total shall, at the conclusion of two decades of honest intellectual toil, have reached £690, on which the rapidly ageing Junior must contrive to satisfy his taste for old port, Waterford glass, and annual jaunts to the classic spots where Delos rose and Phœbus sprung, until the hour arrives for the Stygian ferryman to remove him to a closer communion with the great ones whose fame it has been his earthy business to perpetuate, and whose obscure passages it has been his privilege to render more obscure. I mention the old port and the Waterford glass because the Commission clearly did not envisage (delightful word) the possibility of a Junior Fellow so far divorcing old barren Reason from his bed as to take unto himself a mortal wife, and become (horresco referens) the progenitor of a hungry brood of embryo commentators.

In that they instinctively assumed Fellowships and matrimony to be incoalescent status the Commissioners were probably right. Ever since that fatal day when the name of Paris became unforgettably associated with bad diplomacy attempts to enthrone Venus and Minerva in the same domestic shrine have habitually been attended by the most fatal results. For women are instinctively worldly. Nature has made them practical in order that the race may survive. But Junior Fellows are born—they do not survive. In order that such a one may wear the austere habit and meagre scrip of the pilgrim after knowledge in the gay market places of a self-indulgent world they must remain other-worldy. Other-worldiness and wives, like crabbed age and youth, cannot live together. Sometimes—as in the case of Socrates—other-worldiness comes out on top. More often the wife survives. But the struggle is always à l'outrance.

Apart, however, from the wife question, it is pretty clear that the Commissioners feel that Trinity College is doing quite the handsome thing by the useful, but unspectacular, tribe of Junior Fellows. They express the opinion, without any trace of satiric intent, that when a professorship becomes vacant the vacancy "should be adequately advertised, so as to give the widest choice and secure the best man available." For my part, this suggestion that anything in the nature of a stampede is possible after a job worth £440 a year by the best brains and scholarship of the country indicates one of two things. First, the illustrious Commissioners, bored to an ineffable degree of stiffness by a tedious investigation into the origin of "Decrements" and "Achates" and other feudal emoluments, may have decided to have their little joke. Again, they may have come to the conclusion that this our age is a grossly material one, and that scholarship is a drug in the market, to be had almost for the asking.

This view has some historical foundation, and, before the war, was widely held. It was based on the superficial fact that the finished product of the universities was usually quite incapable, as he stood, of earning his living. Too often the young graduate's parents, constitutionally unable to distinguish between an education and an apprenticeship, declined to spend any more money on him, or were unable to do so, with the result that he was compelled to go and be a dispenser of learning on his own account. This was, and perhaps still is, a common failing with clergymen, from whose families the ranks of the dominies are largely recruited. Book learning was the "open sesame" of their own moderate fortunes. They assume that it is the first and most valuable of gifts to be bestowed on their children. In that they are wrong. An engine-driver will be a better engine-driver if he graduated as a historian before qualifying as an engineer; and the same is true of any business or profession. But if a father cannot afford both the college education and the practical apprenticeship, he had best make his son an engine-driver or a solicitor or a greengrocer, or whatever it may be, at the same time inviting him, if he really has scholarly inclinations, to be a university unto himself.

Otherwise the young man has nothing much to look forward to except a possible Junior Fellowship at £440 p.a. or a school teachership at a smaller salary—unless, indeed, he be among the many into whom the post-war spirit of citizenship has entered. In the patrician days before the war scholarship was feared in many quarters because it unsuited men for the occupations that they would naturally be called upon to follow. It was not that a man who had read Thucydides was physically incapable of wiping a joint or parcelling up a pound of rashers; but it was rightly believed that the regaling of a taste for higher education would breed in him a thirst for a higher social order and more aristocratic pleasures than he had any business to desire. Rather than be a well-to-do plumber or serve in the paternal grocery store the young collegian preferred to be a gentlemanly, but impecunious, usher in a genteel seminary for the sons of gentlemen, or, if his attainments were exceptional, an ill-paid tutor in a university.

The war changed the point of view. Chauffeurs and policemen became colonels and staff officers, and, when the war was over, returned to their beats and their cabs, gentlemen unashamed. Many a scholar and gentleman of aristocratic lineage fought and died in the boots of a private soldier. The result has been that in England, and to a less degree in Ireland, men no longer ask, "Is this occupation one that a gentleman can follow without being ostracised by the fellows in the club and all that sort of thing?" They simply enquire, "Is it honest work and is there good money in it?" And if the answer is in the affirmative, they go to it.

This sort of thing naturally is going to diminish the supply of available timber for Junior Fellowships unless there is good money in being a Junior Fellow. The traditional scholar will crop up from time to time, but such men are rare, and, though they shed vicarious lustre on the university which they frequent, they seldom raise its standards or improve its curriculum. The ideal university professor is the man who is making a success of it for reasons which clearly would have made him an equal success as a stockbroker or a shop steward—who has brought to bear on scholarship the vigour of body and mind, sound judgment, courage, pertinacity, and breadth of vision that push men to the top everywhere and under any circumstances. But are such men to be had for £440 a year? Is any man who can boast his fair share of the qualities that I have indicated going to be satisfied with a quadrennial increment of exactly fifty pounds? He is not. Rather, if he has any sense, he will go to America, where they are offering handsome salaries for real scholarship, and finding no takers worthy of that description.

KEEPING YOUNG.

The man or woman who neglects any reasonable opportunity of renewing his or her youth is a poor creature and deserves to die

THE NEW ULSTER PARLIAMENT.

SIR E. CARSON'S POSITION.

SINN FEIN ATTITUDE.

BELFAST'S NEW LOAN.

(FROM OUR BELFAST CORRESPONDENT.)

The visit of the Standing Committee of the Ulster Unionist Council to London to request Sir Edward Carson on Tuesday next to accept the leadership of the Unionist Party in the new Ulster Parliament has general approval. It is recognised that Sir Edward Carson would be a tower of strength to the new Parliament in the early and difficult days of its existence. It is also evident to Ulster Unionists that there is another point—that Sir Edward Carson's services to Ulster and Ireland may be more effective in the Imperial Parliament, as representative of one of the divisions of Belfast. Therefore, while they are asking him to take up the Premiership of the Ulster Parliament—for Unionists believe they will secure a sufficient majority to form a Government—they are content to leave the decision in his own hands.

PREPARING FOR THE PARLIAMENT.

The preliminary work in connection with the establishment of the Ulster Parliament has been considerably advanced within the past month, but, until the appointed day is announced for bringing the Parliament into operation, all these arrangements are of a tentative character. The principal work in this connection has devolved upon Sir Ernest Clark, the Ulster Under Secretary for Ireland, who has virtually completed the arrangements for continuing under the new Parliament all the administrative and other existing services. The Local Government Board has also intimated that from the 1st April next the portion of County Armagh which is situated in the Castleblayney (Co. Monaghan) Union will be transferred to the Newry (Co. Armagh) Union, and, similarly, Belleek district of Fermanagh will be transferred from the Ballyshannon (Co. Donegal) Union to the Enniskillen (Co. Fermanagh) Union. The object of these changes is to enable the whole of the six Ulster counties included in the new Act to come under the jurisdiction of the Ulster Parliament.

There is considerable speculation as to the attitude of the various parties towards the election for the new Parliament. As the contests are to be conducted under the system of proportional representation, the Unionist majority under normal circumstances should not be a large one, and estimates have been given by competent judges to the effect that the majority would not exceed twelve on a division. There are, however, several factors which might upset this calculation. The Unionists in the industrial areas will be associated with Labour Unionists, and each of these parties will lend the other all the support in its power. Arrangements have already been made in some of the electoral areas for the selection of candidates and for amalgamating the political organisations. Difficulties are presented in the larger areas, such as the united counties, Fermanagh and Tyrone, which, for the purpose of elections, are one electoral area.

ATTITUDE OF SINN FEIN.

Nothing definite is yet known regarding the attitude of the Nationalist and Sinn Fein parties, and it would appear that each is waiting to see what the other is going to do. Influential Nationalists have urged that Sinn Feiners and Nationalists should come to some arrangement, as at the last General Election, to secure the largest possible representation in the Ulster Parliament, and form a strong and effective Opposition, which they could easily do by reason of their voting strength in the six-county area. On the other hand, Sinn Feiners are declaring that they are not going to take part in the Ulster Parliament, or recognise it in any way. If this means that they are not going to nominate candidates, it is anticipated that the official Nationalists will do so, and in all probability they will secure the Nationalist and Roman Catholic vote. It is the general opinion that when the date of the elections approaches some arrangement will be arrived at which will enable the Roman Catholic vote to be available for non-Unionist candidates.

BELFAST CORPORATION STOCK SCHEME.

The new scheme of stock conversion initiated by the Belfast Corporation, and also the new Mortgage Loan, contains many attractive features for investors, some of which are new in municipal finance, and these are the subject of favourable comment in leading financial journals. The following extract is from the Stock Exchange Gazette on the 20th inst.:—

The principal feature of these mortgages is that they are repayable at the option of the applicant in 10, 15, or 20 years, or at subsequent dates. Furthermore, although loans must be fixed for definite periods, arrangements are made so that the City Treasurer may repay mortgages at earlier dates for the assistance of those who find it necessary to realise their investments before the date fixed for repayment. Existing mortgages under the Act of 1913 can be converted into the new 6½ per cent. mortgages. It may be mentioned also that the Belfast Corporation has a scheme for the conversion of its 3½ per cent. Redeemable Stock, 1935, into 5 per cent. Redeemable Stock, 1945. In order to obtain the conversion an equal amount of the 5 per cent. Stock must be taken up by the applicant at the price of 90 per cent. By this arrangement every £90 new money now invested will secure £100 of Stock bearing 5 per cent., and, in addition, the right to convert into 5 per cent. Stock £100 of 3½ per cent. Stock, raising the annual interest thereon from 3½ per cent. to 5 per cent. Holders of the lower interest Stocks should endeavour to take advantage of the scheme.

Full details are given in an advertisement on another page.

DEATH OF DISTRICT INSPECTOR CLARKE.

Great indignation has been caused in Lurgan at the shooting in a Sinn Fein ambush of District Inspector W. Clarke. His family is well known and highly respected in the town, and the deceased, together with his four brothers, had distinguished war service.

District Inspector W. Clarke was the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clarke, formerly of the Manor House, and now of High street, Lurgan, and a member of a family which had a fine record in the war. An old boy of Lurgan College, the late Mr. Clarke went out to an appointment in the Canadian Bank. When war broke out he joined the ranks of the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles at Winnipeg, and after a period of active service he was granted a commission in a battalion of the Royal Irish Rifles, serving with the Ulster Division. He was captured in the memorable retreat of March, 1918, and held a prisoner until the Armistice. After serving as a cadet he received a commission in the Royal Irish Constabulary, and has now met his death at the hands of his own fellow-countrymen.

BELFAST COAL PRICE REDUCTION.

An early reduction in the price of coal in Belfast is foreshadowed. The reduction of 2s. per ton which has taken place in Dublin will likely be followed in Belfast.

ULSTER FARMERS AND FLAX SCUTCHING.

A meeting of the Executive Committe of the Ulster Farmers' Union was held in Belfast yesterday, Major R. J. M'Cormack presiding. The Committee recommended that there should be a reduction in the prices for scutching flax of at least 33⅓ per cent.

The Secretary read correspondence that he had had with the Under Secretary regarding the Bann drainage, from which it was evident that the Imperial Government were not willing to undertake any work of this nature at present.

The Secretary was instructed to write to the Department of Agriculture, urging the necessity of the Department's taking up the question of the present high rates for transport of farm produce with the Ministry of Transport and the railway companies.

CANADIAN STORE CATTLE.

A deputation was appointed to attend a conference to be held in London in March to discuss the question of the proposed removal of the embargo on the importation of Canadian store cattle.

It was decided that the Committee protest against the present system of taxation on motor vehicles, etc., and advocate the imposition of a tax on fuel rather than on vehicles, as the present system imposed great hardships on farmers.

A committee was appointed to consider the provisions of the new Land Purchase Bill.

The Committee decided to lodge a strong protest against the Daylight Savings Act being applied to Ireland this year.

LURGAN FLAX MILL BURNED DOWN.

Yesterday morning at the flax mill of Messrs. M'Dowell and Fitzsimons, Corcreeny, Lurgan, a fire broke out, which resulted in the complete gutting of the building. It appeared that something went wrong with the electric dynamo used for lighting the place, and efforts to cope with the outbreak were of no avail. The damage is estimated at several thousand pounds. It is covered by insurance.

ULSTER'S ASSIZE CONCLUDED.

The longest Ulster Winter Assize on record concluded at Belfast yesterday. Mr. Justice Pim said that they had now reached the end of an unprecedented assize, and he desired to take that opportunity of expressing his feelings of gratitude to all concerned for the help that they had given him, including the High Sheriff, Sub-Sheriff, Clerk of the Crown and Peace (Mr. Martin H. Burke), Deputy Clerk (Mr. Robert M'Quitty), the Crown Solicitor (Mr. J. R. Moorhead), and the members of the Bar. He was grateful also to all the members of the Royal Irish Constabulary, whether on duty in the hall or round himself. They had taken care that not only should justice be carried out in a safe way, but they had also taken care of his personal safety, and for that he was particularly grateful. Last, but not least, he wished to express his gratitude to the members of the juries.

"Finally," his lordship added, "perhaps this is the last time I shall be here. One does not know, but it is possible. It has always been a pleasure and a pride to be judge here, and if I have to come again, it will still be my pride and pleasure to come here and meet the citizens of this great city. If I do not come, I wish the City of Belfast and all those I have been brought into contact with so much—jurors, counsel, solicitors, and everybody else, who have done so much to assist in the carrying out of justice—I wish them all long life, success, and prosperity in the future. I now say to you farewell."

wealthy and full of dyspeptic cares. I include woman for form's sake, but, as a matter of fact, few mothers ever quite grow up—at least until their own children have attained an uninteresting maturity. Renewing one's youth does not, of course, mean renewing one's adolescence. The average young man of eighteen to twenty-two is at his oldest and most insupportable. He takes himself seriously, and expects his elders to stop being jolly and take him seriously, too. He is ambitious also, not realising that it is only when the shirt-tail of ambition is sticking unashamedly through the trousers of accomplishment that a man begins to get his own measure, and care precious little whether he ranks with the giants or the pygmies.

No; the only youth worth renewing is the youth of our childhood, of the days when we were happy and foolish, and made an absurd amount of noise, and wriggled in our chairs, and could be said, "Don't," to fifty times a day without our dispositions being soured thereby. The world still says, "Don't," to us quite often, but now it makes us peevish—and, what is worse, we don't. There are solemn people who inform us heavily that ignorance alone is bliss and that, being no longer ignorant, we can no longer expect to be blissful. The fact is that we are just as ignorant of the only things that really matter as ever we were; but now we take our ignorance to heart and try to cure it by acquiring useless information about things like seismographs, or to conceal it by heaping up wealth, which is worse—for the Solomons of this world occasionally gambol, but the Midases never.

Other observers declare that we are as old as our digestive organs, that children are, in the language of the French philosopher, nothing but "happy little stomachs;" that our own nutriment-destructors, being no longer young or little, are impediments to, instead of purveyors of, happiness. There are no facts to justify this assumption. It is known, of course, that the emotions and the digestion are intimately connected, but the leech has yet to hang up his shingle who can establish to the satisfaction of suffering humanity whether in the first instance the temper sours the stomach or the stomach sours the temper. Of course, the process, once started, is reciprocal. There are a great many other explanations why we grown-ups cannot, or should not, preserve the light-hearted and inconsequent abandon of our nursery days, and, no doubt, some of them are quite sound. The fact remains that most of us wish that we could, and some of us succeed, not, indeed, in preserving it, but in resuscitating it from time to time.

The task is not so easy as one might suppose. It involves intercourse during our brief burst of pseudo-childhood with other children (mirth being a gregarious business), and children are not too ready to accept into the inner mysteries adult persons who, however good their intentions, simply cannot help saying, "Mind that vase!" or "Great heavens! My braces!" just when everything is going really well. There are seasons, indeed, when the young unbend a bit, notably at Christmas, which comes but once a year. But alas! the poor parent is then far too busily engaged in supplying youth with meretricious aids to happiness, and much too harassed in the process, to think of being young himself. An occasional bachelor uncle may remain selfishly free to catch the spirit of the season, but most of them carry selfishness a step further, and go and do themselves well at the club instead. We need not envy them. We have our children, but they have only their stomachs to grow old with.

There is one event that begins at Christmas, but fortunately continues until the duties of the festive season are all accomplished and the deserving parent has time to seek a little relaxation for himself. I refer to the pantomime. Children accept the pantomime in the spirit in which they accept all ritual. Parents wallow in it. Tommy and Ermyntrude laugh at the funny man encouragingly, but not immoderately. Father goes purple in the face, and is coldly invited by Priscilla, his youngest, not to make an exhibition of himself. In one respect Father has the bulge on his little ones. He has seen many pantomimes. He can remember Sinbad's mother when her other name was Dan Leno. He recollects those inimitable Babes in the Wood, George Pain and Harry Campbell. He has seen Laurie, who was more of a cat than a man, playing Puss in Boots, and a whole host of buxom principal boys and roguish principal girls. As for the performers of what a certain young theoriser calls "gymelastics," he can number them by the hundred.

So Father says: "I suppose we must go to the pantomime," and tries to look as if it were an awful bore; but in his heart of hearts he would not miss it for the world. And when he is comfortably settled in his seat, and has put his hat where nobody can sit on it, and has bought mother a programme, and fished the box of chocolates out of his overcoat pocket, and gone through the ordeal of asking the large lady in front to remove her hat, he remains a prey to emotions which have in them a touch of anxiety as well as pleasant expectation. He is asking himself: "Will the charm really work again?" Will he become apoplectic with mirth for the umteenth time and have to undo the three lower buttons of his waistcoat to let out the stitch, or will it all—for the first time—be a cold and aching bore?

It is really an anxious moment, because, if the well-springs of laughter are really dried up, Father is in a bad case, indeed, and there is nothing for him to do but to wait stodgily on for his second childhood. But the charm nearly always works, fortunately, and Father, like the ghost of Christopher Benjamin Binns, has his hour or so of spiritual freedom. If he is a wise father, he does not let it end there, but makes his stealthy way into the nursery next morning the Butcher and Baker and Candlestick-maker, and only if he is a heroic soul does he manage to break out again. No matter. He has had his hour.

IRISH BANK REPORTS.

HIBERNIAN BANK.

The accounts of this representative bank for the half-year to end of 1920 will be laid before the shareholders at the half-yearly meeting fixed for 31st inst., and reflect still further evidence of strong prosperity. Sums due on deposit, current, etc., accounts total £14,233,099, an increase of £2,654,998, and sundry agents were owed £3,207, a decrease of £26,183. The assets total £15,007,709. These consist of cash, £2,743,436, an increase of £1,258,291; Treasury Bills, £750,000, an increase of £50,000; and War Loans and other Government Funds, etc., £5,840,346, a decrease of £160,503, or liquid assets of £9,333,783 against liabilities, or a proportion of as nearly as possible two-thirds of the whole. Officers' superannuation fund stands at £43,693, of which £42,133 is invested in War Loan 5 per cent. Bills. Loans and advances total £5,443,541, an increase of £1,499,435, sundry agents, £41,875, an increase of £746; and bank premises and furniture, head offices and fifty-five branches, are written down to £146,374, an increase of £2,985. Gross profits for the half-year were £137,667, an increase of £38,710, and expenditure £92,538, an increase of £28,746. The net profits were £45,129, an increase of £9,965, and, with £10,158, a decrease of £1,973, brought in, left £55,287, an increase of £7,992, to allocate. The reserve has been again strengthened by £10,000, and stands at £180,000, an increase of £20,000, while a further £10,000 has been credited to investments account, against nil last year, and, after paying the now usual 8 per cent. per annum dividend, absorbing £20,000, the balance forward, £15,287, is less by £2,008. Sub-offices at Delvin and Trim were converted into permanent branches of the bank, and a sub-office has been opened at Athboy. There is a resolution to increase the directors' fees from £1,800 to £2,500, free of income tax, and we have no doubt this proposition will receive unanimous support. The directors and shareholders can both be congratulated on the strong prosperity reflected by these facts and figures of successful management.

GREAT SOUTHERN AND WESTERN TRAIN SERVICES TO CORK.

The Great Southern and Western Railway direct the special attention of the travelling public to their advertisement appearing in to-day's issue in connection with the reduction in the train service arising out of the extended "Curfew" hours in Cork and the state of affairs brought about by the boilermakers' strike. No effort will be spared on the part of the management to meet the requirements of the travelling public under the very exceptional circumstances prevailing.

THE BANK OF IRELAND.

CAUSES OF TRADE DEPRESSION.

EXCESS PROFITS DUTY.

THE NEW PARLIAMENT HOUSE.

A half-yearly general meeting of proprietors of the Bank of Ireland was held yesterday in Dublin, Mr. William P. Cairnes, Governor, presiding.

The Chairman, in moving the adoption of the report, stated that it was a pleasure to be in a position again to submit satisfactory accounts, which indicated a further advance on the then record figures of six months ago. Many of the figures showed such proportionate advance that they called for little explanation. The salient figures and the comparison with June last were:—Deposits, current and other accounts, £32,152,141, showing an increase of £4,143,221, or 14⅔ p.c.; advances and bills, £17,825,804, showing an increase of £1,797,516, or 11¼ p.c.; working expenses, £242,196, showing an increase of £39,755, or 19⅔ p.c.; gross profits, £520,061, showing an increase of £48,945, or 10⅓ p.c.; net profits, £277,865, showing an increase of £9,190, or 3½ p.c. Deposits were influenced by the fact that on the whole the yield on them continued to be better than that on invested money, when depreciation was taken into account, and also by the continued prosperity of the meat and dairy producing industries. He was glad to state that it appeared to be getting better known that the Bank of Ireland aimed at being a people's bank, and would gladly take a deposit of a sum as low as a single pound, allowing the appropriate interest. Loans and advances, although larger in amount, were less in proportion to business. This was not due to any change in policy, which was to give every consideration to all legitimate applications, but to two factors, one being the fall in prices, or, in other words, deflation of currency, in which they all rejoiced; the other, stagnation in trade, which they equally regretted, and trusted would be only of short duration. Working expenses showed an undue increase; but he was glad to say that in the present instance a considerable part of the increase was of a temporary character. During the last six years they had of necessity to postpone much maintenance and renewal work which they were now undertaking, and hoped to have the arrears wiped off in the next year or year and a half. Profits, both gross and net, were, considering the increased business and the favourable rates, somewhat disappointing, but both had been adversely affected by some purely temporary facts. How the net profits were affected he explained when dealing with working expenses. The gross profits were less than they might otherwise have been, owing to the fact that they had, he thought, very wisely put considerable sums into short-dated securities, a part of the yield on which would only come to hand when they reached maturity. The balance sheet did not fully disclose the fluidity of their resources. They had very large sums in short-dated securities, which came to hand from day to day, and which, although not "strictly" cash, very nearly approached cash, and could be absolutely relied on to take the place of cash.

DEPRECIATION OF SECURITIES.

Out of the net profits they had set aside £160,000 to depreciation of securities and other contingencies. This might at first sight appear to be a somewhat large proportion to allocate to inner reserves, but as every one was aware, affairs not only here, but all over the world, were most unstable, and called for the greatest caution in finance, and there was a contingency which they must, in his opinion, be prepared for, and that was the writing down of War Loans, other than those of very short-date, to their market values. The proprietors would, he was sure, agree that the conservative policy adopted was the wisest. He could assure them that their very natural wish for a larger distribution, had been carefully considered. They had recently added two departments to their business, to which he wished to call attention, as they should be of great advantage to customers. They were—Foreign Exchange, and Income Tax Recovery and Advisory Departments. The value in foreign currency of the pound sterling had completely altered, and was constantly changing, and would continue to do so until each country's currency was given some tangible and understandable backing. The changes might be instanced by the following:—£1, or 20s. pre-war, was now equivalent to:—In U.S.A., 15s. 6d.; France, 48s. 6d.; Italy, 87s.; Germany, 230s.; Warsaw, 2,741s. These values were fluctuating day by day, and at times to an enormous extent, and if foreign business was to be done satisfactorily, very full and up-to-date information was necessary. Their Department kept in constant touch with all these changes, and was ready at all times to give full information to customers, and to carry through for them all banking transactions in connection with foreign currencies and exchanges on as favourable terms as possible. The present extreme rate of 6s. in the £1 made income tax a matter of great importance, and it was incumbent on sensible people to see that they paid the right legal amount, and neither more nor less. Under the present Finance Act every one was entitled to reliefs, which reliefs varied, and in cases resulted in complete exemption. The ascertainment and the recovery of these reliefs was by no means a simple matter. This they were now prepared to undertake for customers, and he need hardly say that the information given to them for this or any other purpose, was treated as most private and confidential.

Banks were so linked up with the trade of the world, and so dependent on it, that a few remarks on the general situation might not be uncalled for. The world had by no means yet settled down, and the situation was one of quite hysterical unrest, which, for the moment, was accentuated by unemployment, due to what, they trusted, was only a temporary relapse in trade. One of the results of bad trade was a tendency towards lower rates for money. This might be further exploited for other purposes, but he could see no reason for any permanent reduction in rates of importance until the world, by saving, began in earnest to replace out of earnings the ravages of recent years. The causes of, and remedies for, the present falling off in trade, were deserving of close investigation. He believed that many knew them, and the reason that they were not more clearly set forth was that the truth in this instance was very unpopular. The primary cause was, he believed, far too high costs of production, the which excessive costs of production might be detailed as:—1, Too high rates of wages; 2, too short hours, and slow work during those hours; 3, inefficient organisation and want of method; 4, ill-advised taxation; 5, Government control, and attempts to regulate prices. The last two, he hoped, would be dealt with at once and abolished. The first three would quickly remedy themselves if anything like reasonable freedom was permitted.

EXCESS PROFITS DUTY.

The so misnamed excess profits duty was, he believed, doing great harm, and had a cumulative effect in increasing cost of production. It was, in probably, nearly all cases, a tax, not on profit, but on working capital. All businesses, be they productive or distributive, required certain working stocks. Take a typical case, say a business requiring 10,000 units of stock. It mattered not what these units consisted of—coal, iron, timber, cloth, etc., as the case might be. These units, at the beginning and end of the period of account, were exactly similar, but had increased in price during the period, and so represented £10,000 more at the end of the period than at the beginning. This £10,000 was called profit, and 60 p.c. of it was claimed for tax, with the result that the business was crippled by having either to realise more than half of its necessary stock, and to look for and pay for more capital. Taxation, very heavy taxation, they all recognised was necessary, but they must find some means of getting the egg other than killing the goose. Of Government control, both in industry and in prices, they had had far more than enough. It had been proved up to the hilt that they could not legislate against high prices. The only effect of trying to do so was to create scarcity and destroy quality. The true solution of the problem was to get to work both with brain and hand. Once supply overtook demand, prices would come down, and they would see prosperity. All he had said was diametrically opposed to the advice that industry should all go on to three-quarter time working. Anyone who had been engaged in manufacture knew what was meant by overhead charges, i.e., rent, taxes, salaries, insurance, interest, etc., which were a large item in cost. Three-quarter time meant at least an addition of 25 p.c. in overhead charges to the cost of each article manufactured, and would also mean that capital, buildings, plant and machinery used in manufacture would, in many cases, only be worked six hours in the 24. This appeared to him extreme folly. The troubles in their own immediate country were entirely uneconomic. Nowhere else in the world had the effects of war been so little felt. Their principal business was the land, and the prosperity of farmers was great. He could find no excuse for their madness, and deeply deplored the horrible murders and destruction of property which had accompanied it. He trusted and believed that before their next meeting they would see signs of returning sanity, and find themselves in a clearer and brighter atmosphere. It gave him great pleasure to report that the conduct, efficiency, and discretion of the staff during the half year had been excellent, and, personally, he desired to thank them, and particularly the many heads of departments and others with whom he was in daily contact, for the ready, willing, and pleasant help they had given him.

Mr. Henry S. Guinness, Deputy Governor, seconded the motion.

Captain McWalter, High Sheriff, complimented the directors on the report, and commended them on their conservative policy. They were giving away much less than half the money earned. The Bank had a right to be considered a very great industrial concern, because the employés earned more than the shareholders got. That was, perhaps, as it should be. The Government of Ireland Act stated that they might have to hand over their premises, before they met again, for the purposes of the new Parliament. A certain sum had to be given to them and adequate premises provided before they were asked to vacate the present building. As the Act was now the law of the land, such questions might soon arise, and he had no doubt that the directors would insist on securing premises worthy of the Bank and worthy of the city. He would like to see a building of a similar type of architecture erected in the centre of the city.

Mr. Grierson also complimented the directors, and suggested the lowering of the Bank rate. As regards a site for the new Parliament, he suggested St. Stephen's Green.

The Chairman said that they naturally did not allow the question of premises to pass without doing all they could to strengthen their position. After various interviews with the powers that be, they got the present clause inserted in the Act, and, in his opinion, it was a fair one. For the moment he would not argue the question of the Bank rate, as there was much to be said on both sides.

The report was unanimously adopted, and a dividend of 12 per cent. for the half-year was declared.

A vote of thanks was passed to the directors.

PROPERTY OWNERS' CONFERENCE.

RENT ACT RESTRICTIONS.

A DELEGATE'S EXPERIENCE OF INSPECTION.

Over 200 delegates attended the forty-third Conference of the National Federation of Property Owners and Ratepayers at Manchester yesterday. The Federation represents 80,000 members, owning or controlling over 3,000,000 dwellinghouses. Mr. A. W. Shelton, of Nottingham, presided over the Conference. A resolution proposed by the Hull Association, urging the necessity of securing the removal of all rent restrictions on the termination of the present Rent Act, was passed.

Responding to a civic welcome by the Lord Mayor, the President said that 90 per cent. of the working-class houses erected before the Government scheme came into operation were built by private enterprise, without fuss or hampering restrictions. House for house, private enterprise could produce dwellings at a rate of £100 to £150 less than the cost under the scheme of the local authorities.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Shelton was re-elected President. In his presidential address he referred to the Increase of Rent and Mortgage Interest (Restrictions) Act of last year. By common consent, he said, the Act would go down to posterity as one of the worst drafted measures, if not the worst, that had ever been placed on the Statute Book. Owing to the looseness, or the ambiguity, of the language employed, numerous decisions had already been given—usually in the tenants' favour—that were never anticipated or intended by the Government or Parliament, and much as further legislative disturbance was to be deprecated, it appeared that some simply-expressed measure would be essential to "make the crooked straight, and the rough places plain." Public attention was now directed to the enormous growth in local taxation, and it was well that this should be so, said Mr. Shelton. It was practically certain that, as from 31st March next, yet further and considerable increases would be made, and must be met. It was the obvious duty of the Federation to insist that it should be met in such a way that every ratepayer bore his full and proper share of the burden, and that it should not be camouflaged by improperly increased assessments, applying to a small proportion only. Despite the clearly expressed views of the Government, that general valuations for rating purposes were undesirable in the public interest at the present time, there was evidence that many rating authorities were extremely active in promoting re-valuation schemes, and, in some instances, were abrogating essential principles of rating law and practice. So long as rents were restricted, local rating authorities should be compelled, by legislative enactment, if need be, to refrain from general re-valuation schemes. Increased assessments should only be allowed in cases of obvious inequality, or when the assessment was lower than was justified by the rent paid. The assumption that rating authorities would be entitled to increase the rateable value of houses where the rents had been permissibly, but conditionally, increased under the new Act, was open to grave doubt, and was certainly not contemplated, or, he believed, intended by Parliament. Doubtless, rating authorities might justify the adoption of rent, as permissibly and conditionally increased, as fixing the gross estimated rental, but could be required to deduct, in addition to any existing repairs allowance, the full 25 per cent. allowed for the express purpose of meeting the added cost of repairing. In those areas where increased rateable values in such circumstances were levied, objection should, in his view, be taken on the deposit of the valuation list, to be followed by an appeal to the Assessment Committee, if need be.

THE DUTY OF TENANTS.

Moving a resolution on behalf of the London Association, which proposed to make it incumbent on tenants to keep houses clean and in good condition, Mr. Edwin Evans, London County Council, said that there should be separate obligations in respect of landlords and tenants. In London landlords had been ordered to sweep chimneys, and had been asked to clean paint-work. They would be asked next to clean the floor, and, if they cleaned the floor, surely they ought to be asked to wash the baby. (Laughter.)

A Doncaster delegate said that in one miner's house which he visited he found a bedroom full of birds' cages, of linnets, and canaries.

The resolution was carried.

RENT RESTRICTIONS.

Mr. Cheverton Brown, Hull, proposed the resolution advocating the removal of all rent restrictions on the termination of the Rent Act. He said that bureaucratic control of everything, both national and municipal, was becoming a national danger. He gave the experience of a factory owner, who said: "I am being inspected to death. Within comparatively a few days I have had my factory visited by the factory inspector, the Woman Welfare inspector, the lady factory inspector, a petrol inspector, the Excise inspectors, the water inspector, the Trade Board inspector, the gas inspector, a nuisance inspector, a building inspector, the assistant medical officers, the smoke inspector, the licence inspector, and a police inspector to inspect my motor van. (Laughter.) I believe the day is coming when we shall be inspected to bed at seven o'clock and out of bed in the morning, and that one-half of the country will be inspecting the other half at the other half's expense." (Laughter.)

Mr. F. Lundy, Newcastle, said that he thought that Dr. Addison, in view of numerous blunders over the Rent Act, would be very pleased to bury the Act.

The resolution was passed.

SUB-LETTING.

The Liverpool Association carried a resolution condemning sub-letting without the consent of the owners. It declared that the practice enabled tenants to obtain key-money and dispose of furniture at exorbitant prices.

Several speakers charged tenants with "profiteering" by sub-letting, the President remarking that it had created an enormous scandal.

Mr. W. Boaldley, Manchester, giving his own experience, said that some tenants obtained sums out of all proportion to the amount he received in rental. To obtain possession of a house rented at 11s. he was obliged to purchase furniture for £350. Prominence had been given to the crimes which landlords were supposed to commit, and, if tenants were "profiteering" to this extent, it was time that they should be exposed.

The Peterborough Association carried an economy resolution, which urged an immediate reduction of Government department staffs to pre-war dimensions.

The conference then came to a close.

DUBLIN GRAVEDIGGERS' STRIKE.

SETTLEMENT AT MOUNT JEROME.

As a result of prolonged negotiations between the Ministry of Labour, the Mount Jerome Board, and the Irish Transport and General Workers' Union yesterday, a basis of settlement has been arrived at, and the men resumed work at Mount Jerome Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The gravediggers at Glasnevin are still on strike.

ARMED MEN STOP A HUNT.

A Press Association telegram states:—When a large muster of the United Hunt Foxhounds met at Killeendaniel, near Cork, yesterday, and were proceeding to the first covert they were called upon to halt. As they did not obey they were fired upon by a man in a field. Immediately afterwards other men on the road behind the members joined in the attack with firearms. The Master of the Hunt and some of the members went back to the kennels, and the other members returned to Cork. No one was injured.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

FRIENDS OR ENEMIES?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I have followed with interest the correspondence produced by Mr. Keene's letter in your issue of Monday. If Mr. Keene will jog his memory he will recollect that he spent a portion of his forty-eight years of life under the tuition of the late Rev. Charles W. Benson, A.M., LL.D., at Rathmines School. May I quote from my old friend's book on "Irish Song Birds," published in 1886 (p. 38)?—"A great outcry is often raised against the poor blackbird on account of the fruit he is supposed to have taken from the garden in spring and summer. Surely he who would grudge him a few cherries 'hath "no music in his soul,"' or he would not deal so churlishly with the sable musician. It is probable, however, that, quite independently of his vocal attractions, the blackbird confers solid obligations upon the gardener, and so deserves rather his commendation than his condemnation. In support of this view, Mr. Adams, in his 'Smaller British Birds,' quotes a writer in Chambers's Journal, who relates that a grass plot attached to a country house was observed to be visited by a number of blackbirds, and to be completely ploughed up by their beaks. The owner of the property, being unwilling to shoot them, caused the plot to be dug up in several places to discover the cause of their proceedings, and found it to be overrun with the larvæ of chafers. The birds were left in undisturbed possession, and, although the walls were covered with ripe fruit, they left it untouched, and devoted their attention to the grubs, which they entirely destroyed, and the grass plot resumed its original appearance." Has Mr. Keene forgotten the precepts instilled into the instruction that so many of Dr. Benson's pupils delighted in?—Yours, etc.,

A. W. IRWIN.

Prospect, Newtownmountkennedy,
January 20th, 1921.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—Mr. Parker Keene would do well to read "The Poet's Tale: The Birds of Killingworth," in Longfellow's "Tales of a Wayside Inn," and Tennyson's poem about the blackbird. Even if the birds were all that Mr. Parker Keene wrongly says they are, it were better to live all the year round on potatoes and salt than in a songless world.

I knew a garden where birds and squirrels feasted, and yet where there was abundance of fruit and vegetables and plenty of jam was made. Chance visitors from a distance were amazed one day at being given a huge basket filled with strawberries to take home. One who loved the birds and all wild creatures had gathered that fruit at five o'clock in the morning, choosing to do that, day after day, rather than that one bird or squirrel should suffer. Would you, sir, print the subjoined verses that were found among her papers after her death?—Yours, etc.,

"K."

THE BIRDS.

Are you friends with the beautiful birds
That have sung to you all your life long?
Do you give them affectionate words,
With your thanks for their heart-cheering song?

For believe not such words would be vain,
Though your language is other than theirs;
For your love will your meaning make plain,
As their song does their joy and their cares.

Think not wasted the portion you give,
Neither grudge what, ungiven, they take;
For not only by bread do we live,
And not little return do they make.

Where the wisdom of man is most dim
Their existence a lesson provides,
And the sparrows are counted by Him
Who has made them our teachers and guides.

FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—The present outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease at Arklow is a very serious matter for Irish stock-owners, and every effort should be made to prevent the disease from spreading. I believe that one of the chief ways in which the malady is conveyed to other districts is by birds alighting on infected farms and feeding on the droppings, etc., of the affected animals and treading on the infective discharges. When they alight on other farms they carry the disease with them. Might I suggest to the departmental veterinary authorities that poisoned grain should be laid down on the infected farm? The poisoning of a few hundred birds (crows, pigeons, etc.) would be little as compared with the loss entailed by the spreading of the disease to other localities.—Yours, etc.,

WOMEN AS JURORS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—May I ask for space to urge upon your woman readers who are qualified for jury service not to seek to evade this opportunity for fulfilling an important public duty? Women householders and tenants of flats rated on their own valuation are eligible. Cases affecting women, young girls, and children are common, and ought to be dealt with by men and women together. In the absence of women jurors, very young children may not receive from the law the protection which is their right, and women who evade their duty in this matter are making themselves responsible for such injustice. When a woman receives a summons to serve on a jury it is her duty to attend, even at sacrifice of valuable time. The generous welcome extended to women jurors in a recent speech by the Lord Chief Justice of Ireland should be an encouragement to all who have the privilege of rendering such service.—Yours, etc.,

ANNA M. HASLAM, President.

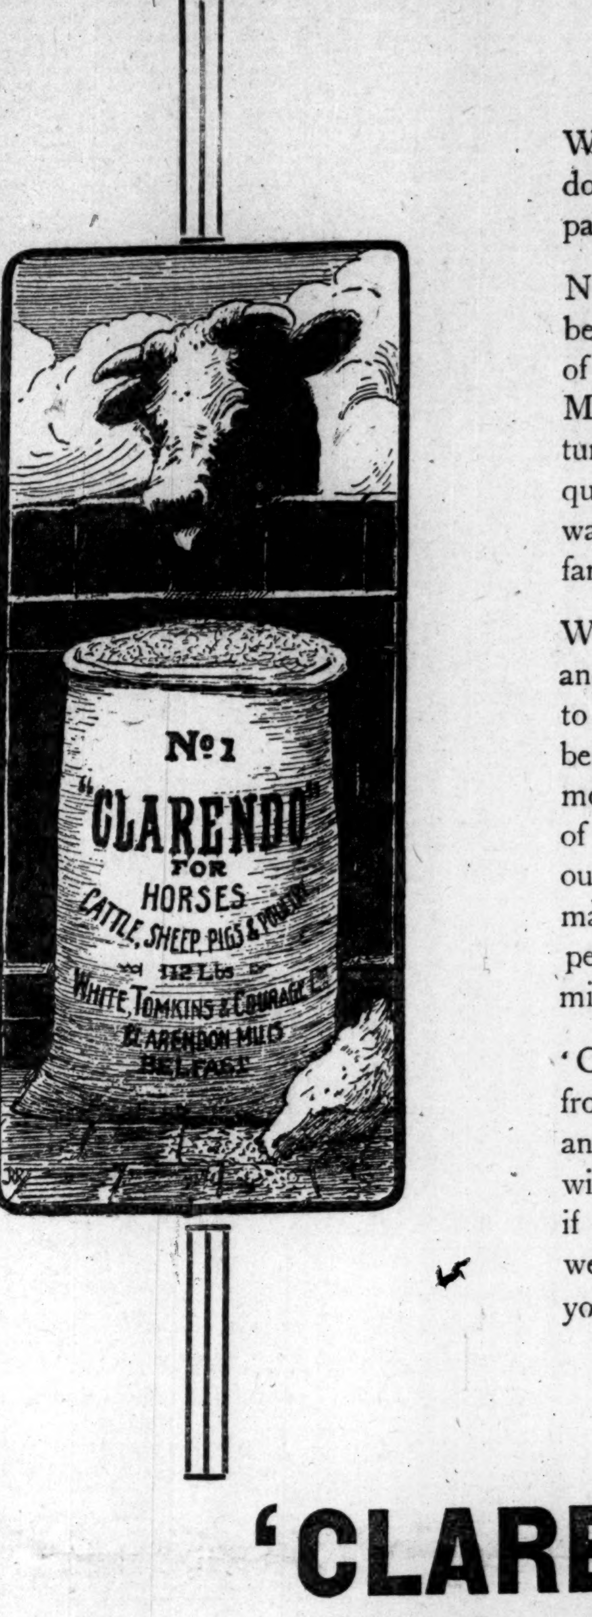
THE PRICE OF POPULARITY.



We are popular—there is no doubt of that—and we have to pay for that popularity.

Never in our history have we been so busy as now, and this state of affairs has been keeping our Mills working night and day turning out 'Clarendo' in enormous quantities—but still the grand pre-war quality which made our name famous all over Ireland.

We do not mind working night and day—we don't mind having to pay "the price of popularity," because the busier we are the more money goes round in hundreds of ways—salaries and wages to our own workers as well as to many other Irish Industries depending to some extent upon our mills working at high pressure.

'Clarendo' is popular — orders from all parts prove that Farmers and Breeders have proved it. We wish to keep busy all the time and if you have not tried 'Clarendo' we ask you to give a trial order to your Dealer.

'CLARENDO'

is simply common sense applied to Stock Feeding.

DUBLIN AND DISTRICT.

THEOLOGICAL LECTURES.—The course of theological lectures will be resumed by Professor Peter Finlay, S.J., at 5 p.m. to-morrow, in the Council Room, University College, Earlsfort terrace, Dublin.

INTERESTING ADDITIONS TO DUBLIN "ZOO."—Yesterday morning the incoming G. and J. Burns Line steamer Magpie, from Glasgow to the North Wall, had an interesting little collection of four-footed travellers on board for the Dublin "Zoo." They included two bear cubs, one leopard cub, and one juvenile puma. They had journeyed from the Edinburgh Zoological Gardens.

PLENTIFUL SUPPLIES OF COAL IN DUBLIN.—A big change appears to have taken place in the situation as regards coal supplies and coal prices in Dublin. Whilst stocks are up prices are down, and some of the importing firms are evidently anxious to clear some of their ample supplies off the Liffey side banks as quickly as possible. To this end canvassers for coal orders were making house-to-house calls in the Dublin suburbs yesterday, and offering prompt delivery at the reduced rates ruling.

DUBLIN CITY SESSIONS.—The Dublin City Sessions were resumed yesterday in the Courthouse, Green street, when the Recorder disposed of a number of summonses for the payment of increased rents and rates. The majority of the cases dealt with defendants resident in tenement houses, and in many of these the claim was for sums averaging about one-third of the amount of the "standard rent." The tenants generally objected that the premises were in very bad condition, and costs in some cases were allowed up to £1.

SOLICITORS' APPRENTICES' DEBATING SOCIETY.—The weekly meeting of the Solicitors' Apprentices' Debating Society was held in the Library of the Solicitors' Buildings on Wednesday evening—Mr. John J. Early, solicitor, being in the chair. The subject for debate was:—"That the case of Cook v. the Midland Great Western Railway Company of Ireland was wrongly decided." The following lady and gentlemen spoke:—For the affirmative—Messrs. Blake, Fitzpatrick, McGrath, Glynn, and Keane. For the negative—Miss H. Early, Messrs. Davy, E. Carroll, Walsh, Russell, Coolican, and Lalor. On a division the motion was lost by a majority. A vote of thanks to the Chairman was proposed by Mr. Fitzpatrick, seconded by Mr. Lalor, and passed unanimously.

AMERICAN TRADE WITH DUBLIN PORT.—The Moore and MacCormack Line steamer Honolulu on Thursday arrived in the Liffey, after her call at Southern Irish riverside cities. The Honolulu is understood to have about 3,800 tons of freight to land at the port of Dublin before going northwards to Belfast and Londonderry, and thence homewards to the Hudson River. The commander of the Honolulu, Captain Doherty, will be no stranger to Lough Foyle or Derry, as he happens to hail from the vicinity of Moville. The s.s. Tallo, from Rotterdam, and the s.s. Rathlin Head, from New Orleans, are two other overseas arrivals at the port of Dublin. The Fanad Head, which grounded whilst entering the Liffey on Wednesday morning, was safely got off, and yesterday was discharging her trans-Atlantic cargo at the east end of Dublin port.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.
I have obtained all the information and explanations I have required in the course of my examination in detail of the foregoing Profit and Loss Account and Balance Sheet.
I have verified the Investments. Those redeemable at par or over par on fixed dates (including the War Stocks and War Bonds) stand in the Balance Sheet at under cost price, and all the other Investments at the market prices current on 31st December, 1920. I have also verified the Cash and Bills in hand at the Head Office.
The Balance Sheet is, in my opinion, properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Company's affairs according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me, and as shown by the Books of the Company and the Certified Returns from the several Branches.

CITY AND COUNTY BOROUGH OF BELFAST.

6½ PER CENT. CORPORATION MORTGAGES.

AUTHORISED BY THE BELFAST CORPORATION ACT, 1913.

The Corporation of Belfast are prepared to accept loans of £50 and upwards in multiples of £10 on Mortgage, secured upon all the Revenues of the Corporation, and bearing interest at 6½ per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly, on 4th January and 4th July. The Mortgages will be transferable by deed, and, subject to six months' notice having been given on either side, will be repayable on one of the following dates as selected by the Applicants:—
4th January, 1931.
4th January, 1936.
4th January, 1941.
or, subject to similar notice, on any subsequent 4th January or 4th July.
The rateable value of the City, which is yearly increasing, now amounts to £1,686,735, and an unquestionable guarantee for all their securities is provided by the rating powers of the Corporation. Under the Local Acts, Redemption Funds must be provided by annual contributions from revenue and interest accumulations, sufficient to pay off all Corporation borrowings at the end of the prescribed periods.
While loans must be arranged for definite periods, the following provisions have been introduced in order to facilitate Mortgagees who may find it necessary to realise their investments before the dates fixed for the repayment of the loans:—
In the month of June each year, applications for repayment of Mortgages may be sent to the City Treasurer, and the Corporation may repay such Mortgages on the following 4th of January to an amount not exceeding the sum available for the purpose in the Sinking Fund constituted for the repayment of these Mortgages. If the applications exceed the amount available, the Corporation will have the discretion in the first instance, of repaying in full applications for sums of £100 and under, while larger applications may be repaid pro rata to the sum available for the purpose.
Existing Mortgages under the Act of 1913 can be converted into the new 6½ per cent. Mortgages, but strictly in accordance with the foregoing provisions.
Commission at the rate of one-half per cent. will be allowed to Stockbrokers, Bankers, Solicitors, and Financial Houses on the amount of Mortgages granted in respect of cash applications, but no Commission will be allowed on the conversion of existing Mortgages.
Application Forms may be obtained from the City Treasurer, Belfast Bank, Belfast, or from the City Accountant, City Hall, Belfast.

SHOW OF PURE-BRED BULLS.

The Managing Committee of the Royal Dublin Society draw attention to the difficulties caused to the Society's agricultural work by the present military occupation of the premises at Ballsbridge, whereby the main buildings will not be available for the coming show and sale of pure-bred bulls on February 22nd and 23rd, thereby necessitating arrangements which cannot be regarded as altogether satisfactory, having regard to the importance of this fixture in the cattle breeding interests of the country.

This show and sale is the principal centre in Ireland for the selection of bulls for breeding purposes under the live stock scheme of the Department of Agriculture. Fortunately, it was found practicable to accept all the entries that were made in time, but a number of late entries had to be declined, so that loss and disappointment both to breeders and others must be inevitable. Coming at a time when there is such a serious meat shortage in England, and when Ireland is looked to more than ever to make good the deficit, this setback is very unfortunate.

Although not generally known or understood, this show and sale is, from a cattle-breeding point of view, the most important event in the Society's agricultural operations, and may be regarded as the essence of the scheme administered by the Department of Agriculture

Fortunately, it was found practicable to accept all the entries that were made in time, but a number of late entries had to be declined, so that loss and disappointment both to breeders and others must be inevitable. Coming at a time when there is such a serious meat shortage in England, and when Ireland is looked to more than ever to make good the deficit, this setback is very unfortunate.

Although not generally known or understood, this show and sale is, from a cattle-breeding point of view, the most important event in the Society's agricultural operations, and may be regarded as the essence of the scheme administered by the Department of Agriculture for the improvement and extension of cattle-breeding in Ireland.

ENTRIES FOR THE SHOW.

There are 267 entries of shorthorns. Last year the number was 289. The Herefords entries amount to 115, and at the corresponding period of last year they amounted to 92. The entries for the Aberdeen Angus class are 204, and last year they were 151. The total entries are 586 this year, and last year they were 532.

Substantial money prizes and valuable cups are offered.

Four other young Irishmen, residing in London, were again remanded, charged with being concerned in the shooting at two constables with intent to murder, with an attempt to set fire to barrels of oil on the Vacuum Oil Company's premises, and with having revolvers and ammunition in their possession with intent to endanger life and property.

FINANCIAL NEWS.

DUBLIN STOCK EXCHANGE.

WAR LOAN GOOD. DUNLOP RUBBERS REACT. PARENT TYRES BETTER. OILS HIGHER. COATS DULL.

There was a regular "boom" in the market for War Loan 5 p.c. Stock again yesterday, and this constituted the chief feature, as the improvement is significant of many things financial and otherwise, including the likelihood of an early reduction in the official Bank rate, which has stood at an onerous level since last April. The fresh rumours of borrowing by the Dunlop Rubber Company were responsible for a set back in the price from the previous day's recovery. Banks closed steady, with Bank Stock marked ex. the £6 half-year's dividend. Breweries closed dull. Marconis turned weaker. Home Rails closed firm, but largely stagnant, while Dunlop Rubbers weakened. Parent Tyres met with inquiry. Coats were still dull, but Tobacco and Oils improved. About half the day's business was marked small or exceptional lots.

The Funds were better in some cases. War Loan 5 p.c. rose 1 7/16 to 86⅛, though up to 85½, ⅝ was paid after hours the previous day. India 2½ p.c. rose nearly 2 points to 40, Consols repeated 47 1/16, and Victory Bonds fell ⅛ to 75¼.

In Banks, Nationals rose 1/16 to 16¼, but Provincials fell 1/16 to 18. Hibernians were firm at 5, and Munsters at 5 11/16. Nearly all the business was in odd lots.

In Breweries, Guinness Ord. fell ½ to 33, while Dublin Distillers Pref. repeated 5 1/16 for a small lot.

Marconi Ordinary Shares opened 42s. 9d., fell to 42s., and closed at 42s. 3d., or 9d. lower on the day.

Home Rails were very idle. Great Southern Ord. rose ½ to 45, but the Guaranteed fell ½ to 50 for exceptional lots. Midland Great Western repeated 22.

In Trams, Dublin United fell ½ to 6¼, and the Pref. remain at 7⅞ for broken lots.

The Dunlop Market was busy. Parent Tyre Pref. rallied a further 6d. to 12s. 6d., and the Ord. 1s. to 15s. 6d. and 16s., but Deferred repeated 35s. 3d. Dunlop Rubber Ord. opened 9d. weaker at 14s. 6d., and finally fell away to 14s. The new Ord. eased 3d. to 6s. 1½d., 6s.

Gas, Bakery, and Drapery Shares were neglected.

In Manufacturing Shares, Coats fell 3d. to 46s., and the Pref. remain at 9. Goulding Pref. not recently quoted fell 18s. 7d. to 70s., and the Debs. show no change at 58s. Lever Bros. 7 p.c. Pref. were harder, with 17s. 6d. bid.

Among Trading, etc., Shares, Hugh Moore and Alexanders Ord. rose 1s. 3d. to 11s. 6d., and Wallace Bros. Pref. 2s. 6d. to 52s. 6d. Yam Seng Rubbers were wanted at 3s. Irish Civil Service improved ⅛ to 18½. Imperial Tobacco rose 3d. to 49s. Mexican Eagle Oil 1/16 to 6¼, 1/16, and Shells 1/16 to 5⅞.

STOCKS MORE CHEERFUL.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

More cheerfulness has been diffused throughout the Stock Market this week than for a long time past. Markets opened yesterday with an outburst of strength, but interest was almost entirely centred in Government Securities. At the start the 5 p.c. War Loan was called 85⅞, or about ⅜ above the previous day's closing level. From this the quotation shot up to 86⅛, the sharp advance being assisted, it was alleged, by the presence of the Government Broker in the market. Apparently there were a good many selling limits round 86, for when this price was reached realisation began, and a reaction took place to 85½. Dealings commenced in the new local loans issue on the basis of 1 p.c. premium, but afterwards the price eased off to ⅜ prem. A further recovery in the value of the franc brought about a sharp advance in French Bonds. Continental purchases were said to be going on in Brazilian securities, and prices consequently moved on the up grade.

LONDON STOCKS BRIGHTER.

NEW LOCAL LOANS PREMIUM.

(FROM OUR FINANCIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

On the London Stock Exchange the principal feature was the opening of dealings in connection with the new Local Loans Stocks. The price opened at ⅜ prem., and later improved to 1 prem., though the close was under the best. The old stock was 51½. Generally, business was rather better, and it seems that the tone is improving slightly in all directions. The Investment market was almost inclined to be buoyant, while Foreign Bonds did not lack support. Home Rails, however, were flat. A feature was the sharp drop in British Oil and Cake Mills on the dividend, considered generally to be very disappointing. Dunlops secured considerable attention, being lower on balance, however, after changing hands freely. A good tone prevailed among Investment stocks, and the 5 p.c. War Loan was dealt in at 86 1/16, but later reacted to 85 15/16. Consols, too, further rose to 48⅛, the Funding Loan to 70¼, but the former leaves off 48⅛, and the latter 70. Victory Bonds were ⅛ better at 75⅝. National War Fives of 1927 were better at 95⅛. War Loan Fours were up to 95, and Indian Threes advanced to 49½.

Foreign Government Bonds were supported. French Fives were 44, and the Fours 35, after opening at a much lower figure. German Threes were unchanged at 6¼. Among Brazilians, the Old Funding advanced to 67½, while the 1914 were unchanged at 55. The Fours of 1889 were better at 41. Finnish Bonds were better at 41. Chinese Reorganisation Loan fell back to 63. Egyptian Unified further rose to 62, and the 3½ p.c. Pref. to 52.

Home Rails were flat, and nothing seems to rouse an active interest in this department. Midlands, after changing hands at 47 7/16, closed unchanged at 47¼, while North-Western were weak at 76½, and North-Eastern were ½ lower at 77¼. Dover "A" retained its price at 25½. Underground Incomes further rose to 67½. Metropolitans were again higher at 22, while the surplus Land Stock was up to 39, and Districts advanced to 16.

"Canpacs" were ½ higher at 153½. Among Grand Trunks, the First Pref. and Second Pref. were ½ higher at 45½ and 34½, respectively, while the Third Pref. were ¼ higher at 14¾. San Paulos were dull at 132, and "Leos." remained unchanged at 27½. Argentine Rails were distinctly flat, "B.A.G.S." falling to 61. Westerns to 57, Pacifics to 44½, and Centrals to 58. Apparently a certain amount of stock was offered on an unwilling market.

INDUSTRIALS UNEVENTFUL.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

The week closed on another generally uneventful session so far as the Miscellaneous and Industrial market was concerned. Here and there improvements were noted, particularly as regards investment types, but the tendency among the rank and file of securities was unfavourable, and scattered liquidation continued in evidence. Before the announcement of the dividend and the news that an issue of fresh capital was contemplated, Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank Shares were ruling at 116, or a point below the highest price this year. A decline followed to 103, from which level the shares yesterday reacted, closing with a recovery of 3 at 106. Elsewhere in the Banking group prices presented a firm front, improvements being again recorded in Barclays "B" at 42s. 3d., Agricultural of Egypt at 4¼, and National of Egypt at 17½. In the Canadian-American group Brazil Traction showed a gain of ½ at 40, and Rio Trams First Bonds ½ at 88. Idleness prevailed in the Nitrate section, no movement of importance taking place. Courtaulds at 36s. 6d. showed a decline of 6d. as compared with the overnight level, but the shares were fairly steady at the reduced price. A few sellers of Crosses and Winkworth Pref. and Calicos depressed the quotations to 15s. and 20s. 6d. respectively. Spinners were easier at 2 1/16, and Amalgamated Cottons dull at 16s. 9d. Bleachers also lost 1/16 at 1 3/16. Selfridge Pref. were better among Stores, closing 3d. to the good at 20s. 6d., but Whiteleys at 24s. 6d. were easier, also Harrods at 2 1/16. Land Shares displayed no vitality, practically the only improvement recorded being in Duffs, which lost 3d. at 8s. 4½d. Breweries and Hotels were wholly neglected. On the disappointment occasioned by the dividend announcement, Oil Cakes were liquidated, the price running off quickly to 29s., or a drop of 4s. on the day. Elsewhere among Miscellaneous descriptions the tone was dull, Dunlops being marked down 9d. on balance at 14s. 3d., and the New 6d. at 6s. British Glass eased to 7s. 3d., while Wallpaper Def. at 10s. 7½d. ex-dividend showed a further decline. Good resistance was displayed by Tobacco issues, among which Imperials at 49s. were 6d. to the good, and Albert Baker showed a gain of 3d. at 19s. 9d. B.A.T.'s were merely steady at 3 1/16 ex-dividend. Among Motors, Dennis were flat at 1½. S.T.D. Pref. were steady at 11s. 6d., and the Ord. 17s. 6d. In the Iron and Steel department Palmers Shipbuilding showed no disposition to yield further. The price eventually stiffened to 14s., or 6d. up. Vickers were steady at 16s. 3d., and Armstrongs at 18s. 6d. were 3d. to the good. J. Brown put on 6d. to 15s. 6d., and Cammell Laird improved 6d. to 15s. Cargo Fleet, however, were a weak spot, falling back to only 14s. South Durham Steel eased 1/16 at 2¼, and Sheffield Steel Products 3d. to 10s. 6d. Among Gas securities, Primitiva rose to ⅛, and the 5 p.c. Pref. to 1⅜. Coal Stocks were inert.

MINES DULL.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

Apart from the gilt-edged department, markets yesterday wore a decidedly week-end appearance. As regards Mines, public interest was practically nil, and professional operations were of a very limited character and confined almost exclusively to a few favourites. The award of the Cave Commission still caused a buzz of excitement in the Chartered market, but there was more discussion than business, and it would seem that the matter requires time for its proper digestion. Charterland and General were still being quietly picked up in anticipation of the statement to be made at the meeting, but profit-taking caused a set-back at the close. Tanganyika and Zambesia were supported, and in this case also the meetings are awaited with keen interest. Kaffirs were again, for the most part, left in the cold, and dealings, even in shares of the investment class, were reduced to a minimum. It has to be remembered, however, that several of the leaders of the industry are either in South Africa or en route, and it is confidently expected that news may be received ere long regarding the disposition of alien enemy holdings now in the hands of the trustees. Paris continued to hold aloof, despite the fact that at 56.40f. to the £ the exchange was more favourable than it has been for some time past. An improvement in the price of gold was without influence, but some of the Land shares were being nibbled at, and Village Main Reef were supported in anticipation of a higher break-up value of the concern than was represented by the price ruling. Diamonds were steady, with De Beers a trifle better. A slump in the price of the metal of £7 7s. 6d. to the record low price of recent times of £179 15s. per ton aroused hardly a comment in the Tin share market, where everybody seemed to be waiting with what patience they could command for a turn of the tide. There is, however, said to be "a move on" in B.W.A. trading. Sons of Gwalia relapsed on the publication of the news of the fire, and failed to recover on the further cablegram reporting that the outbreak had been controlled. Other Australians were left to themselves. Coppers were idle, as were also most of the Miscellaneous descriptions; but Santa Gertrudis hardened on the views expressed by the directors that the mine is not likely to have been damaged by the floods. Nundydroog relapsed on the announcement of the calling up of another 1s. per share.

OILS SLIGHTLY BETTER.

(FROM THE FINANCIAL NEWS OF TO-DAY.)

In the Oil Share market transactions were on a slightly increased scale. The better-class shares again claimed the bulk of attention, Shells being strongly favoured. Royal Dutch continued to be favourably influenced by the announcement of the bringing into production of an important well by its Mexican subsidiary—La Corona—on the new Taxamixtle field, and the shares selling of Mexican Eagle rights comprised practically the whole of the business transacted on Paris account. Mexican Eagles changed hands fairly freely, but, after being bid for at an advance, they gave way in the later dealings, both the Ord. and the Pref. closing lower on balance. Mexican Eagle rights, however, finished steady and unchanged. Burmahs met with only a small amount of attention and left off slightly lower, but a recovery occurred in Indo-Burmas. Renewed strength was displayed by Trinidad issues, the chief feature in this group being provided by Trinidad Central, a strong demand finding the shares in short supply, with the result that the price moved up sharply. Other Trinidad descriptions were better in sympathy, gains being scored by Leaseholds, United British, and Apex Trinidad. In other directions, Anglo-Americans recovered, and Anglo-Egyptian B were in quiet demand on the improved production reported for the past week. Kern Rivers hardened slightly and Caltex responded to a fairly good demand. Closing prices:—

RUBBER SHARES DULL.

(FROM OUR FINANCIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

The Rubber market was dull and uninteresting. On rubber going back to 1s. 1d. per lb., a few of the leading shares gave way. Kempahs, however, were an exception, with a rise of 1s. 3d. to 22s. 6d. B.N.B.R. Trust fell 1s. 3d. to 12s. 3d., and Bukit Rajah, Langen Java, Tandjong, and Telogoredjo each fell a similar amount. Tamiang, at 27s. 6d., were 1s. 10½d. lower, and Rubber Trust fell 1s. 1½d. to 18s. 7½d.

THE MONEY MARKET.

RISE IN THE PARIS CHEQUE.

Bank Rate (changed April 15th) .... 7 p.c.

Money was not quite so scarce as it was on Thursday, and the general range for daily loans was 5 to 5½ p.c., with no supplies offering at a lower level. The Discount market remained very quiet, there being scarcely any bills coming forward. The market is largely relying upon Treasury bills, and the fact that the three months' fine rate is so close to the three months' Treasury is an indication that brokers would take bills readily enough if they could get them.

Bank Rate (Discount) changed April 15, 1920 .... 7%
60 days (fine) 6½ 6⅝%
3 months .. .. 6⅝ 6¾% | Trade 7 7¼%
4 months .. .. 6½ 6¾% | " 7¼ 7½%
6 months .. .. 6½ 6¾% | " 7½%
Loans to brokers day-to-day 5 5¼%
" " for a week 5⅛%
Deposit allowance: Banks, at call .... 5 %
Discount houses, at call .... 5 %
" " at notice 5¼%

The price of gold rallied 3d. to 109s. per ounce fine. America secured available supplies. Bar silver reacted ⅛d. cash and forward, to 40d. and 39⅞d. per ounce respectively. The fall was due to general selling, but on the fall some support was forthcoming from the Indian bazaars.

The feature of the day in foreign exchange was the activity of the Paris cheque, which resulted in an improvement of about 80 centimes on balance. This makes a very important rise during the last couple of days, and evidently speculators are making a big factor of the French Loan pourparlers in America. The rate early in the day was up to 58.10 as the top. Brussels touched 55, but came down with Paris and showed a net fall of a franc. New York fluctuated between 3.76⅞ and 3.78, and at the closing figure was fractionally against us compared with yesterday. German marks showed little change. The kroner appreciated at one time in all three Scandinavian centres, and rates were much lower even than those given below. Italian lire depreciated.

FINANCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

Official returns of 35 of the principal tramway undertakings in the United Kingdom, as published by "The Tramway and Railway World," for the week ended January 8th, give total receipts of £393,381, or £86,721 more than in the corresponding week of last year. The total length of track included in the returns was 1,991 miles. Receipts this year were at the rate of £197 11/7 per mile of single track, and last year at the rate of £154 0/5, thus showing an increase for the week of £43 11/2 per mile open.

The thirty million dollar loan negotiated by Belgium with the Guaranty Trust Company of New York was signed yesterday, says a Brussels telegram. The loan, which will be issued in America at par, will bear interest at 8 per cent.

We are informed that the result of the prize competition promoted by the Rubber Growers' Association (Incorporated) of London for ideas and suggestions for extending present uses or encouraging new uses for rubber, which closed on December 31, 1920, will not be known for some three or six months, being dependent on the amount of experimental work necessary. It is interesting to note that over 2,000 entries have been received by the chartered accountants who were entrusted with the audit of the scheme, and it is hoped that valuable results may be obtained.

The Corporation of Sheffield is prepared to receive loans of £20 and upwards in multiples of £10 on the security of the rates and revenues of the city at £6 per cent. interest. The Mortgage Deeds are prepared free of cost to the investor.

LONDON WOOL SALES.

The first series of public sales of Government wools for the current year closed yesterday, 63,064 bales having been catalogued during the series. There has been a large attendance at these sales, but buying has again been mostly confined to covering special requirements. During the earlier period of the auctions the Government limits were decidedly higher than the market level established for privately-owned wools, and the quantity sold, therefore, was small, with a reduction of the Government limits latterly. A larger proportion of the offerings was realised. Prices for the better classes of merinos closed at a decline of 20 per cent. as compared with December currency, other descriptions of merinos being 15 per cent. cheaper. The fall on fine and medium cross-breds amounts to 10 to 15 per cent., while the coarser qualities have again been neglected. Next series of London auctions fixed to commence on February 22.

MARKET REPORTS.

CATTLE.—BIRKENHEAD, Friday.—Owing to the order of the Board of Agriculture, by which stock has to be slaughtered within 96 hours after landing, there were fewer buyers at the Birkenhead lairages to-day, and prices were worse all round. The top price of best stall-fed bullocks and heifers was 1/6½, grass cattle 1/6 to 1/5. There were no quotations for cows and rough cattle, which were a much worse trade. There was not sufficient trade done in the sheep department to warrant quotations. On offer—2,000 cattle and 537 sheep.

ARMSTRONG AND SMITH'S REPORT, 25 Prussia street, Dublin, January 20th, 1921.—Beasts, 4,322—decrease 377; sheep, 5,182—decrease 535. Owing to the outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease, Dublin port was closed against all shipping, and, with no cross-Channel buyers operating, considerably less money had to be accepted for both cattle and sheep, and a clearance was not effected. Beef, best, 92/- to 96/- per cwt.; secondary and cows, 70/- to 90/- per cwt.; mutton, 1/6 to 1/9 per lb.—(Advt.)

THE STRATHMORE AUCTION CO., LTD., GLASGOW.—Market Reports, 19th January, 1921. GLASGOW, Monday—Supplies large. Trade worse, excepting for the primest. Best bullocks and heifers, 103/- to 108/-; secondary, 95/- to 102/-. FORFAR, Monday—Increased supplies of both fat and stores. Fat easier. Forward conditioned stores wanted. COATBRIDGE, Tuesday—Rather more cattle than last week. Scotch better trade. Tops making over 120/-. Irish scarcely so good; best 103/-. GLASGOW, Wednesday—Good supplies. Trade good for choice descriptions, but secondary bullocks and heifers were no better than on Monday. Bulls realised higher prices per cwt., and cows were in fair demand at the recently established rates.—(Advt.)

GRAIN.—DUBLIN CORN EXCHANGE, Friday. Neither with regard to the attendance of the trade nor the business put through was our Exchange fixture of any general interest. The little doing appears to be confined to retail parcels of oats of prime and extra good bulking quality. For blacks of such character up to 27/- and 28/- per barrel is spoken of, but for light descriptions figures remain very much as before. White oats, too, of choice quality are changing hands at about previous rates, whilst ordinary and inferior classes are difficult to quote for. Some oddments of Irish wheat are rating at from 47/6 to 52/-, according to class.

I BUY OATS.—A. H. Smith, 10 Burgh quay, Dublin.—(Advt.)

MILLERS.—Ask for our Prices to-day. They may prove of mutual benefit.—J. W. and D. MARTIN, LTD., 21 City quay, Dublin, and 36 North street, Cork.—(Advt.)

FLOATING GRAIN CARGOES.—BALTIC, Friday.—WHEAT—Allocations included Plate ex store London at 97/-, and red and white Walla afloat 96/6 per 480lbs. MAIZE remains very dull for cargoes. The motor schooner Daneconge, 2,300 tons Plate 15th Dec. bill of lading, sold 52/-; steamers of Plate afloat sellers 52/-, loading 52/6, and American mixed Jan.-14th Feb. 44/6. Parcels steadier; Plate Dec.-Jan. sold 47/9, Jan.-Feb. 46/-, American mixed Jan.-14th Feb. 44/6 sellers, and Jan.-Feb. 44/- per 480lbs. BARLEY neglected and quotations nominally unaltered. OATS firmer; Plate f.a.q. Jan.-Feb. sold 26/6 to 27/6, and Feb.-March 26/- to 27/- per 320lbs.

MARK LANE, Friday.—WHEAT slow; whites delivered up to 80/-90/-, reds ditto. Foreign grades slow of sale; No. 1 N. Manitoba 105/9 ex ship, No. 2 103/7½, No. 3 101/6 ex ship; Australian 111/7½, No. 1 red winter 105/9 ex ship, No. 2 103/7½ ex ship; Manchurian 100/9 ex ship, and Argentine 99/7½ ex ship. FLOUR slow; Canadian free 86/6 ex store, Government imported 70/3 to 84/3 ex store, No. 1 Town Households 87/- ex mill. BARLEY dull; English 50/- to 66/-, No. 4 Canadian 54/- landed, American feed 51/- landed. OATS easier; English 44/- to 55/-, black Irish 35/- landed, Plate clipped 36/6 landed, American white clipped 37/-. MAIZE easier; American white 58/-, South African white 58/- landed, and Plate yellow 60/- landed.

LIVERPOOL, Friday.—C.i.f. parcels of wheat were not offered. Maize parcels improved about 6d. to 9d. per qr. owing to higher quotations from the Argentine, and past week's shipments from thence turning out less than forecasted. River Plate December-January sold at 47/6 to 48/-, and January-February 45/9 to 46/-, and American mixed per Belgian afloat to Manchester at 45/-, and January-February to Liverpool 41/3 to 41/6 per qr. WHEAT on the spot remains quiet, but steady and unaltered. MAIZE—Spot parcels quiet and easier on freer arrivals, with white American quoted 12/6 to 13/-, and River Plate 12/3 to 12/4 per cental. FLOUR in only moderate request at the official prices. BEANS scarce and nominal. PEAS dearer for Japanese, but others favoured buyers. BARLEY showed no material change. OATS and OATMEAL quiet at generally easier prices. MILL OFFALS steadily held.

DERBY, Friday.—Wheat of good quality sold at 85/- per qr., oats 50/-, for meal 41/- for feeding. Poor trade in barley at variable prices.

WAKEFIELD, Friday.—Fair attendance, but trade slow. Only the finest samples of wheat are inquired after. Barley trade stagnant at prices ranging from 60/- to 90/- per quarter. Oats and feeding stuffs in poor demand at lower prices.

PROVISIONS. — DUBLIN POTATO, Friday.—Supplies fairly ample. Trade for city consumption remains flat, and it certainly looks as if current rates cannot be maintained indefinitely. Standard table quality Up-to-Dates, etc., 9/- to 10/- per cwt. Skerries scarce at special terms.

LIVERPOOL, Friday.—BACON—No fresh arrivals are entered, and allocations confined to a few hams and Canadian Wiltshires. The market for American bacon remains generally quiet, the free supplies of overkept Wiltshires and Cumberlands not being wanted, but some little inquiry is experienced for fresh parcels of the latter, while bellies, which are in small compass, attract attention. Trading is still largely in Irish and Danish, which is now getting into smaller compass owing to the recent liberal buying on account of relative cheapness, but Canadian at 198/- per cwt. is still difficult to place, as buyers do not consider it good value compared with Irish and Danish to be had without question of taking stale American in conjunction. Hams continue scarce and in good demand, especially when to be had alone. Shoulders also in limited supply, and fresh squares wanted. LARD on the spot steady, with the demand for American refined fully equal to offerings, but prime steam again attracts little attention. CHEESE generally quiet, with controlled at 1/5½ per lb., delivered to retailers, and Cheshire 2/- to 2/1 per lb. Free Canadian held at 157/- to 159/- for white, and 158/- to 162/- per cwt. coloured, and New Zealand white quoted 156/- to 157/-, and coloured 159/- to 161/- per cwt. BUTTER dull at the fixed sales, and free Irish slow. EGGS quiet and easier, with Irish 31/- to 34/-, and Egyptian 19/- to 21/- per 120.

LONDON, Friday.—BUTTER—The Government allotment of Australian and Dutch has been more freely taken up, while Irish is in better demand. Dutch, control prices; Irish creameries, 240/- to 300/-; Canadian, control prices. CHEESE—Lower grades of English sell well, but best quiet; Canadian firmer, on short supplies; Dutch irregular, and inferior sorts cheaper, best being scarce. Canadian white 156/- to 158/-, coloured 158/- to 162/-, New Zealand white free 154/- to 156/-, coloured 158/- to 159/-, finest Cheshire 168/- to 180/-, Cheddar 168/- to 180/-, loaf 190/- to 200/-. Control prices of Government imported—Wholesale 1/5¼, retail 1/8 per lb. Irish free 130/8 to 140/-. Dutch Edam 40 per cent. 160/- to 170/-, 30 per cent. 126/- to 136/-, 20 per cent. 104/- to 114/-, and Gouda 45 per cent. 170/- to 174/-. BACON—American depressed, and almost unsaleable owing to inferior quality. Canadian neglected. Dutch and Swedish in better demand. Irish sells well, while in good supply. Irish 185/- to 210/- ex factory, Danish 207/-, Swedish 207/-, Dutch 200/- to 207/-, Canadian 198/-, American Cumberland cut 160/- to 170/-, bellies English cut 195/-, American Wiltshire cut 150/- to 156/-. HAMS—English slow, and tendency of prices weaker. American scarce, but quiet of sale. Cumberland 2/2 to 2/8 per lb.; Canadian long 180/-, ditto short 175/-, American long and short 175/-, shoulders 160/-, New Yorks 140/-, and picnics 100/-. LARD—American in fair request, and supplies ample. Irish slow, 135/- to 145/-; American refined 138/-. EGGS weaker; market dull; production of English increasing, and are more than adequate for requirements. English new laid 35/-, Irish 32/-, Hungarian and Styrian blues 27/- to 28/-, reds 24/- to 25/-, Morocco 22/-, Danish (18lbs.) 34/- to 36/-, and Chinese 26/- to 27/-.

HALSTON STREET POULTRY AND GAME, Friday.—Supplies of poultry are keeping up fairly well in touch with requirements of the trade. Demand covers a slightly freer offtake, especially of chickens, but altogether there is practically nothing new to feature in the market. The run of values, too, works out on exactly similar basis to Tuesday's quotations in poultry, game, and wild fowl sections, but, of course, the latter are very scarce.

DUBLIN FRUIT AND VEGETABLE, Friday.—Imported fruit, etc., continue in good compass, such as apples, oranges, grapes, lemons, also onions in bag and cases. These goods are mostly quoted on stock lists, but rates remain much as Tuesday. Offtake still very disappointing. Black grapes, 3/- and 3/3 per lb.; Almeria 30/- to 35/- per barrel. Market was heavily supplied with greenstuffs and roots. Demand of a narrow and dragging disposition, which gave somewhat of an uncertainty to the value barometer of things. Some commodities, such as white turnips, growthy celery, etc., were a veritable drug to cash. Swedes, 2/4 to 2/10 per cwt.; parsnips, 5/- to 6/- per cwt. and 3/6 per bag; carrots, 10d. to 1/- and 1/9 per dozen bundles and 4/- per bag; artichokes, 2/3 to 3/- and 3/3 per float, etc.; sprouts, 2/- to 2/9d., and 3/- per half bushel and 1/- to 1/3 per strike; celery, 2/- to 2/9, 3/3, and 5/- per bundle; York cabbage, 15/- to 20/- and 30/- per load; Savoys, 10/- to 15/-, 25/-, and 30/- ditto; salad, 4/- per box; cauliflowers, 2/9 to 3/9 and 5/- per dozen; seconds, 1/- to 1/3 ditto; leeks, 3d. to 6d. per bunch and 1/- to 2/2 per dozen ditto; white turnips, 1d. to 3d. and 4d. per bundle; parsley, 6d. to 1/- per tray, etc.; thyme, 4d. to 1/-; sage, 1/6 to 2/-.

McGANN AND McGANN'S WEEKLY VEGETABLE REPORT, Dublin, January 21st, 1921.—Supplies throughout the week came forward in larger quantities. Buying throughout the early portion of the week was of a cautious tone, but yesterday and to-day showed a much brisker demand. The quality of produce is good for the season. Prices obtained for our clients were as follows:—Cauliflowers, 2/6 to 5/- per doz.; celery, 2/6 to 6/- per bundle; sprouts, 2/9 to 5/- per float; parsnips, 5/- to 7/- per cwt.; swedes, 2/- to 2/8 per cwt.; carrots, 5/- to 6/- per cwt.; parsley, 6d. to 1/- per float; leeks, 1/6 to 2/- per doz. bundles; artichokes, 1/6 to 2/- per float; beet, 2/- to 2/6 per doz bundles; York cabbage, 22/6 to 35/- per load; Savoy, 10/- to 23/- per load; potatoes, 8/6 to 10/6 per cwt.—McGann and McGann, Auctioneers, Salesmen, etc., 77 Queen street, Dublin. 'Phone 2011.—(Advt.)

DUBLIN FISH, Friday.—There was a large supply of fish forward from country stations, mostly hook catch, but local offerings were moderate. Arrivals included 6 chests lobsters, 136 packages herrings, and 7 of mackerel. Leading sales averaged:—Best lobsters, 27/6 to 35/- per 13; seconds, 17/6 to 25/-; small, 10/- to 15/- per 13; turbot, 2/6 to 8/- and 10/-; brill, 6d. to 4/- and 5/-; best soles, 30/- to 40/- per 9 pairs; medium, 20/- to 25/-; slips, 7/6 to 15/- per 9 pairs; large plaice, 6/- to 8/- per 4; others, 5/- to 8/- per 8; half-boxes of plaice, 50/- to 80/-; codfish, 35/- to 50/-; haddocks, 20/- to 30/-; whiting, 10/- to 22/6; ray, 7/6 to 25/-; herrings, 24/- to 30/- per box, and 50/- to 55/- per barrel; mackerel, 60/- per barrel.

BILLINGSGATE FISH, Friday.—Supply fair; steady demand. Soles, 14d. to 17d.; slips, 12d. to 15d.; red mullet, 24d. per lb.; live eels, 40/- dead, 20/- to 30/- per draft; turbot, 11/- to 13/-; brill, 11/- to 12/-; plaice, 10/- to 15/-; halibut, 14/- to 24/-; lemon soles, 16/-; whitches, 10/- to 12/-; cod, 7/- to 9/6; whiting, 5/-; hake, 14/-; skate, 6/-; roker, 9/-; haddock, 7/- to 9/- per stone.

MANCHESTER, Friday.—BACON—American dull; Canadian quiet at reduced prices. Good demand for Irish and Danish, both of which were considerably lower. LARD—American refined had a fair inquiry at 138/-. CHEESE—Finest grades are making 2/- in the country; factors firm, owing to scarcity. EGGS—Irish steadier at 32/6 to 33/6, Danish 34/- to 36/-, Moroccos 25/-. BUTTER—There was an improved inquiry for the recent allocation of Government butter, which consisted principally of good quality Danish.

BUTTER AND EGGS.—LITTLE GREEN, Friday—Our farm produce market is getting more unsettled and uncertain. Only very choice qualities of creams, either fresh or from cold storage, or occasional parcels of prime factories are making around 3/1 per lb. The butter market is greatly burdened with secondary and inferior descriptions of produce, which tends to make the position very depressed; the more so, as buyers are more fastidious, and are turning their attention mostly to strictly prime stuff. Secondary classes of creams and factories are anywhere from 2/8 to 2/11½, according to character. Farmers' butter very irregular in price. Best cools, 2/8½ to 2/10, and firkins, 2/3 to 2/6½ per lb.; extra nice fresh makes, perhaps 2/7 per lb. Fine hand separators not much in evidence, but bring special figures where met with. Eggs remain a very slumpy and tedious trade, with reliable quotations scarcely possible to venture upon, as it is certain that in the near future there must be a further heavy cut in prices. Sales to-day were done at 34/- to 35/- per 120 for prime selected and repacked hen eggs, and down to 25/- for ordinaries and smalls, whilst average case eggs are rather difficult to quote for. Duck eggs remain very scarce, and easily maintain special rates, viz., 36/- to 40/- per 120.

PRODUCE. — LONDON, Friday — SUGAR—Market firm, quiet for free parcels, with whites very scarce. Honey neglected, some medium West India sold 40/-, fair Jamaica quoted 57/6; American syrup quiet, medium sorts sold 22/6 cwt. Liquid glucose 41/-. COFFEE—Spot market generally quiet, and without new feature; futures dull. March quoted 45/-, May 45/3, July 45/3, September 46/3, December 47/- cwt. COCOA—Sales include ordinary second size Ceylon at 65/-, good Trinidad 70/-, fine Grenada 54/- cwt., butter 1/9 lb. TEA—Common qualities quiet, but good to fine firm, with fair inquiries. RICE—Market quiet at recent rates. Bran dull; afloat £6 10/- per ton. SPICE—Pepper steady; fair black Singapore spot 4¼d., January-March 4¼d.; fair demand for spot Lampong at 5d. Tellicherry 5d. Aleppy quoted 4⅜d., white Singapore spot 8½d., Muntok 9d., ditto January-March buyers. Zanzibar cloves dull; spot value 11d. January-March sellers 8½d. FLAKE TAPIOCA—Spot buyers 11d. per lb. Fair Penang seed pearl spot 19/-, small sago 24/- to 25/-. Sago flour—Spot 19/-, January-March 21/-. Polish spot Liverpool 28/6, Japanese spot 26/6, Jan.-March 21/-. Desiccated cokernut—Fine cut spot sold 60/- to 59/-, medium 61/- to 60/-. HF and HF January-February 58/- cwt. Eastern nuts 80 sold 1/1 per lb. FRUIT—The market remains quiet, at about late rates;

CLYDE CRUSHED SUGAR, Friday.—Official Report—Market steady.

LIVERPOOL COTTON (Closing), Friday.—American neglected; Brazilian quiet; East Indian unchanged; Egyptian quiet. January, 9.53d.; February, 9.46d.; March, 9.56d.; April, 9.62d.; May, 9.70d.; June, 9.74d. Sales 2,000, imports 29,253 bales. Market easy.

HAY AND STRAW. — SMITHFIELD, Friday.—Much heavier supplies of hay and straw came on market this morning from both country and local sources, under pressure of which values got somewhat of a set-back, but at current rates trade moved in a sharper and more decisive groove than previously. Hay dropped 6d. to 1/-, and in some cases 1/6 per cwt. Straw 6d. to 9d. lower. Fairly satisfactory sell up of everything of dry and useful quality. Choice strong horse hay averaged 9/- to 9/6, and in a few early transactions perhaps 3d. to 6d. per cwt. more for extra nice County Dublin first crop; medium strong hay, 7/6 to 8/6 and 9/- per cwt.; best old meadow, 5/6 to 6/6 and 7/3; other sorts, 4/- to 5/3. Wheaten straw averaged around 4/-, and prime 4/3 and 4/6; oaten, 3/6 to 4/-, and in early sales, 6d. per cwt. higher.

TRADE REPORT.—MANCHESTER, Friday.—Inquiry in cloth section is not exactly scarce, but all the conditions prevailing tend to restrict operations within very narrowest limits. India takes a few small lines in light goods, but shirtings are hopeless. China offers for bleaching fabrics only occasionally. Workable and smaller outlets quiet. Yarn for both home and export very dull and irregular.

LONDON METALS MARKET.

The market for TIN ruled easier on some selling pressure, though offers were well absorbed, and on balance rates ruled from £7 to £7 10/- per ton down as against Thursday's close. Cash quoted £179 10/- to £180, three months £184 10/- to £185, settlement price £179 10/. Sales 450 tons; cash at £182 to £180 10/-, early March £185 to £182 15/-, and three months £190 to £184 10/. Sales 1,000 tons; cash £69 2/6 to £69 5/-, late March at £69 5/-, three months fluctuating between £70 and £69 5/-, finally £69 12/6. Electros £79 to £80, B.S. £76 to £77, S.S. £127, wire bars £79 to £80. LEAD firmer. Sales 500 tons; January at £23 to £23 5/-, April £23 10/- to £23 15/. SPELTER—Better sales; 550 tons March £26 to £26 5/-, April £26 5/- to £26 7/6 per ton. TINPLATES dull, at late rates.

LONDON FREIGHTS—Friday.

Homeward chartering continues limited, and business dull on the various produce markets, which affords no encouragement to shippers to operate beyond pressing needs, and, with ample tonnage supplies available in the principal trades, rates continue to show a declining tendency, while in some sections a more or less nominal state of affairs prevails owing to absence of inquiry. River Plate section shows more inquiry at the low rates ruling on the basis of 30/- up river loading prompt and 25/- lower ports, while late February is worth 35/- and second half March 40/- to U.K.-Continent, heavy grain. There is quiet inquiry for coal and grain tonnage from North America to Europe at late rates. Gulf grain to U.K. remains at 7/6 per quarter, and from North Pacific ports 80/- per ton home. Coal from range ports move off slowly at 4 dollars to Antwerp-Rotterdam, 4.50 dollars to French Atlantic. Eastern markets dull and weak with dearth of orders; Bombay on D.W. nominally 40/-, and Karachi indicates 32/- scale basis for grain. Outward markets quiet as regards tonnage, same being in ample supply, with fair inquiry from Spanish Mediterranean fruit ports to U.K. Other sections unaltered. Fixture—Luchanna, 5,500 tons, San Lorenzo to U.K., 15th February-15th March, heavy grain, 35/-; option Hamburg-Bordeaux-Gibraltar 37/6, Mediterranean 40/.

INTER-PROVINCIAL MATCH.

LEINSTER v. ULSTER.

ULSTER WIN BY 3 POINTS.

The second, and most important, of the inter-provincial matches, played at Lansdowne road yesterday, resulted in a victory for Ulster by 2 goals (1 penalty) to 1 goal. The game was closely contested, but the superiority of the Ulster backs was very marked, and this fact contributed largely to the success of the side. On the selected Ulster side four changes were made in the forward division, W. Napier (Queen's), A. D. Brennan (Instonians and Lansdowne), F. S. Mayne (Queen's), and D. Cunningham (N.I.F.C.) coming on vice W. D. Doherty, J. T. Smyth, J. Taylor, and J. C. Thompson (Queen's); while the only change on the Leinster team was the substitution of F. Murphy (Blackrock College) for P. Dunn in the forward line. Except for a cold wind blowing down the field to the Lansdowne road end, the conditions were very favourable when the following teams lined out:—

LEINSTER.

Full-back—J. McConnell (Monkstown).
Three-quarters—H. Cormac (Clontarf), T. Wallis (Wanderers), D. Sullivan (National), D. Cussen (Trinity).
Half-backs—(Scrum), P. Conmee (Bective); (outside), W. Cunningham (Lansdowne).
Forwards—N. Purcell (Lansdowne) (captain), A. Courtney (National), J. Bermingham (Blackrock), R. Y. Crichton (Trinity), F. Murphy (Blackrock College), W. R. Collis (Wanderers), J. Halloran (United Services and Lansdowne), W. P. Collopy (Bective).

ULSTER.

Full-back—W. E. Crawford (Malone).
Three-quarters—R. Hamilton (N.I.F.C.), A. R. Foster (Derry), G. V. Stephenson (Queen's), J. A. Dickson (Dublin University and N.I.F.C.).
Half-backs—(Scrum) T. Mayne (N.I.F.C.), (outside), J. R. Wheeler (Queen's).
Forwards—J. K. S. Thompson (Dungannon and Monkstown), T. A. McClelland (Queen's), S. Clancy (N.I.F.C.), J. Milliken (N.I.F.C.), W. Napier (Queen's), A. D. Brennan (Instonians and Lansdowne), D. Cunningham (N.I.F.C.), F. S. Mayne (Queen's).
Referee—Mr. J. J. Rowland.

Purcell kicked off for Leinster against a strong wind, and Wheeler, gathering immediately, put Stephenson in possession. The latter made a good run, and transferred to Hamilton, who cross-kicked, but Cussen, securing the ball, cleared well to touch. The Ulster backs were going again a minute later, and Dickson made an effort to score by jumping McConnell, but was stumbled. Leinster were then penalised, but neither with this nor another free kick immediately afterwards could Crawford convert. Leinster were kept busy defending their line, and relief came when Dickson, kicking too hard, sent the ball dead. At last the Leinster backs got moving, and after the ball had passed from Conmee to Cunningham, to Wallis, to Sullivan, it came to Cormac, who, doubling in, got in a nice pass to Wallis, but the last-named was tackled at the Ulster 25. Another free sent Ulster back, and in a forward move McClelland was going for the line when Cussen brought him down. Play was at half-way when Cunningham and Crichton got off-side, but McConnell replied well to Crawford's kick. Another fine round of passing by the Ulster backs, in which Mayne, Wheeler, and Stephenson participated, ended when the last-named was tackled by Sullivan, and later Stephenson was not far astray with an attempt to drop a goal. Conmee was off-side, and got his side penalised, the resulting free, taken by Mayne, also barely missing the mark. The Leinster backs were moving, but slow passing allowed Dickson to intervene, and but for a knock-on Ulster might have scored. Cormac made ground for Leinster with a good kick, and afterwards nipped in to save an awkward situation for Leinster when the ball had been dribbled past McConnell. Following up his kick, Cormac brought Hamilton down before the latter could kick, but immediately afterwards, from a penalty, Wheeler dropped a grand goal. Ulster deserved this score, and should have added to it shortly afterwards, but Dickson knocked on slightly from a pass by Stephenson. The try was not long delayed, however, as the Northern backs soon got away again, and Foster, cutting an opening, sent Hamilton in for a good try, which Mayne converted. Leinster had a spell of attack after this, but the nearest they went to a score was when Cunningham made a futile attempt to drop a goal. Crawford, kicking out from the "25," sent down past M'Connell, and, though Cormac recovered, the Ulster team soon bore down on the Leinster line, and Hamilton was pulled down a couple of yards out. Half-time:—

Ulster—2 goals (1 penalty) (8 points).
Leinster—Nil.

On resuming, the Leinster forwards for a time put in some fine work, and it looked as if the fortunes of the game would turn round in their favour. From one of the rushes Cunningham picked up, and passed to Halloran, who made a great effort to cross the line, being only pulled down a yard outside. Immediately afterwards a couple of forwards broke away, and Purcell, getting the touch over the line, scored a try near the posts, and Wallis converted. Leinster forwards were prominent again shortly afterwards, Halloran leading a rush, and Cormac made a burst for the line, but was tackled. [illegible] later Ulster had to touch down in defence. [illegible] some loose play Collis sent Cunningham away, but he failed in an attempt to cut through. Collopy and Murphy continued the movement, but the Ulster forwards, bringing the ball along at their feet, brought a change of venue, and, Milliken sending to Wheeler, Leinster were in some straits until Cormac came round and saved. Leinster were [illegible], but Crawford's kick was a poor one, and, [illegible] a couple of forwards were offside. From the [illegible] Leinster backs got going, Cunningham and [illegible] making ground, but the latter's pass to [illegible] was badly delivered, and a great chance was lost. Leinster had a chance of a penalty goal, but Wallis made a poor shot. Then Halloran broke away unsupported; and Crawford had no difficulty in taking the ball from him, and sending to touch. The Leinster forward rushes generally failed through only one or two forwards joining in, and when Collopy and Bermingham broke away Stephenson and Wheeler easily took the ball off them. From the centre Crawford sent in a great kick to touch at Leinster "25." A dangerous movement by the Ulster backs was upset when Cormac brought Dickson down, but the Leinster line was not out of danger. Wheeler and Stephenson made ground, but were pulled up, and then a Leinster forward rush, headed by Bermingham and Halloran, and finished in by Cunningham, brought play right to the other end, where Collopy sent Halloran over the line, but the pass was forward. Good kicking by Stephenson and Mayne sent play back to the Leinster "25," and M'Clelland was nearly in when [illegible] took him down. The final whistle sounded shortly afterwards. Result:—

Ulster—2 goals (1 penalty) (8 points).
Leinster—1 goal (5 points).

NOTES ON THE GAME.

Ulster deserved their victory, as the side was the [illegible] round one. As regards the forwards, the [illegible] lot were slightly superior, but behind the scrum the Ulster had a big pull. Had there been more cohesion amongst the forwards Leinster might have won, though on the run of the play they did not deserve to do so. Individually the forwards played well, but neither in the scrimmages nor in the loose was there any cohesion, while some of them seemed unable to stay out the full time. This, however, would be accounted for to an extent by having to play against such a stormy wind in the first half. The display of the Leinster backs was disappointing to say the least of it, and, except Cormac, Cunningham, and McConnell, all fell below their previous form. Cormac was the best of the three-quarters, and the only one to go back to cover his full back when the latter was in difficulties. He was prominent all through the game both in defence and attack, and allowed Dickson very little latitude when opposed to him in the second half. Conmee was handicapped somewhat by his forwards not sending out the ball as cleanly as the Northerners, but, this apart, he was not a great success. The forwards brought off some fine loose work, especially at the opening of the second half, though in most instances the rushes were spoiled through the player with the ball not being supported by the others. Halloran, whose first appearance it was in an Irish trial game, was one of the best, while Birmingham was little behind him, and of the others Collopy, Courtney, and Crichton were very prominent. Collis, if not often seen in the loose, was a genuine worker in the scrimmages.

For Ulster Crawford proved himself as reliable as ever, and whether in fielding, kicking, or stopping rushes was never at fault. The Ulster three-quarters, whose passing was a long way superior to that of Leinster, all did well. Stephenson was the best, but Hamilton; whenever he got a chance, made use of it. He and Dickson changed wing positions in the second half. Wheeler, the outside half, made many clever openings, and kicked well, while Mayne gave out his passes smartly and with good direction. The forwards, who were going as well at the finish as at any other time, were all genuine workers, and the pick were McClelland, Clancy, Thompson, and Milliken.

SPORTING NEWS.

LINGFIELD MEETING. YESTERDAY.

An afternoon's racing typical of Lingfield was carried through yesterday in pleasant weather, in the presence of a fairly good attendance. A couple of races for amateurs figured on the card, and, judging by the unfavourable comments which one heard, the step is not one to the popular taste. Backers of first favourites did well, being assisted by the Stewards very properly taking a favourable view of Colonel Brooke's complaint of bumping and boring against Alcazar in connection with the Amateur 'Chase, wherein the owner of Rufus XXI. received an ugly fall at the last obstacle. Duchess of Sparta and Tramore Boy landed the odds betted on them with plenty to spare, and Vermouth appeared to finish in the Burstow Steeplechase with something more in reserve than the verdict of a neck would suggest, but six of the ten competitors came to grief. From this point the racing curled up, and only a dozen runners could be found for the last three events, Clonree meeting with but weak opposition for the flat race, which aroused very little interest. REES BROOKS v. JACK DROY.

A twenty rounds contest at 9st. 2lb., between Rees Brooks (Aberavon) and Jack Droy (Islington), was the chief event at the Ring, Blackfriars, on Thursday. Brooks has figured as one of Jimmy Wilde's sparring partners, and Droy has just joined the professional ranks from the amateur class. It was a fine contest, Brooks being the cleverer, and Droy the harder hitter. In the ninth round Droy had Brooks down twice with telling body blows, but the Welshman made a splendid recovery, and, out-boxing his rival in a keenly contested fight subsequently, he won cleverly at the finish on points.

MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, AND DEATHS.

REGISTRAR-GENERAL'S REPORT.

HIGHEST MARRIAGE RECORDS.

The fifty-sixth detailed annual report of the Registrar-General for Ireland was issued yesterday as a Blue Book. It contains the vital statistics of Ireland for the year 1919. A general summary shows that the marriage rate (6.09 marriages per 1,000 of the population) for the year 1919, was 0.96 per 1,000 above the rate for 1918, and 0.89 above the average for the ten years 1909-18. The rate for 1919 was the highest recorded for Ireland. The rate (20.0 per 1,000) represented by the births registered during the year was 0.2 per 1,000 above the rate for 1918, but 2.1 per 1,000 under the average for the decennium 1909-18. The total number of births (89,325) registered in 1919 was 2,021 above the number for the preceding year. The death rate from all causes during the year 1919 was 17.6 per 1,000 of the population, or 0.3 per 1,000 below that for the preceding year, but 0.7 per 1,000 above the average for the ten years 1909-18.

THE INFLUENZA MORTALITY.

The outstanding feature of the mortality statistics for the year 1919 (as in the year 1918) was the excessive mortality from influenza and pneumonia, deaths from influenza amounting to 9,406, as compared with an average of 2,119 for the preceding ten years; those from pneumonia numbering 5,245, as against an average of 4,267. The rate per 1,000 of the population represented by deaths from influenza during the year was 2.11, and from pneumonia 1.18, as compared with averages of 0.48 and 0.97, respectively, for the preceding ten years. It may be stated that, were it not for this excessive mortality from influenza and pneumonia, the years 1918 and 1919 would have created records for low mortality from all causes in Ireland.

TUBERCULOSIS.

The rate represented by the deaths from all forms of tuberculosis during the year was equivalent to 1.94 per 1,000 of the population, being 0.24 per 1,000 under that for 1918, and 0.26 per 1,000 under the average for the ten years 1909-18. The mortality from tuberculosis for the year 1919 was the lowest recorded in Ireland, being 8,643. The infant mortality rate (deaths of infants under one year of age per 1,000 births registered) for year 1919 was 88, as compared with 86 in 1918, and an average of 90 for the ten years 1909-18.

MARRIAGES.

There were 27,193 marriages registered during the year, being equivalent to a rate of 6.09 per 1,000 of the estimated population. This rate was 0.96 above that for the previous year, and 0.89 above the average for the ten years 1909-18. Of the 27,193 marriage registered during the last year, 18,756 were of Roman Catholics, as compared with 15,733 in 1918, the remaining marriages numbering 8,437 in 1919, as against 6,837 in 1918. Included in the 8,437 marriages are 4,247 celebrated according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of Ireland, as against 3,566 in 1918; 3,008, as compared with 2,319 in 1918, were in Presbyterian meeting houses; 643, as against 522, in 1918, in "registered buildings" belonging to various religious denominations; 514 by civil contract in the registrars' offices, as against 412 in 1918. Six were according to the usages of the Society of Friends, as against three in 1918, and 19, as compared with 15, in 1918, were according to the Jewish rites. The marriages of Roman Catholics are equivalent to a rate of 5.69 per 1,000 of the estimated Roman Catholic population, or 0.68 above the corresponding average rate for the preceding ten years, and the other marriages are equivalent to a rate of 7.23 per 1,000 of all persons other than Roman Catholics in the population, this rate being 1.51 above the corresponding average rate for the ten years 1909-18. Of the marriages celebrated according to the rites of the Church of Ireland there were 94 by special licence, 3,645 by licence, 491 after the publication of banns, and in 17 instances the mode of celebration was not stated.

Of the men married during the year 489, or 1.80 per cent. were under age, and of the women married 1,975, or 7.26 per cent., were minors. The proportion of husbands who married under age in 1919 was as follows, for each province—Ulster, 2.07 per cent. of the marriages; Leinster, 2.06 per cent.; Munster, 1.23 per cent.; and Connaught, 0.92 per cent. The corresponding proportions for wives were—Ulster, 9.15 per cent.; Leinster, 6.41 per cent.; Munster, 5.39 per cent.; and Connaught, 5.29 per cent. It may be stated that in Ireland the percentage of persons married who were under age is much below the corresponding percentages in England and Scotland.

BIRTHS.

The births registered during 1919 numbered 89,325—46,202 boys and 43,123 girls—the ratio per 1,000 of the estimated population being 20.0, which is 2.1 below the average rate per 1,000 for the ten years 1909-18. The total of births in 1919 was 2,021 above those registered in the preceding year—viz., 87,304. The proportion of male infants born alive in 1919 was 107.1 to every 100 females born; in 1918 it was 104.7 to 100, in 1917 it was 105.2 to 100, in 1916 it was 106.5 to 100, in 1915 it was 106.4 to 100, and in 1914 the proportion of males was 105.2 to every 100 females. Of the 89,325 births registered in Ireland during the year, 86,419, or 96.7 per cent. were legitimate, and 2,906, or 3.3 per cent., were illegitimate, the latter being 0.2 above the percentage for the preceding year. As regards illegitimacy, Ireland compares favourably with most other countries. The male children born in Wedlock numbered 44,739, and the female 41,680, or 107.3 of the former, to every 100 of the latter. Of the illegitimate children, 1,463 were males and 1,443 females, being 101.4 boys to 100 girls.

DEATHS.

The deaths registered in Ireland during the year numbered 78,612, and afford a rate of 17.6 per 1,000 of the population, estimated to the middle of 1919. Of the deaths, 39,019 were males and 39,593 were females, equivalent to 17.3 and 17.9 per 1,000 of the male and female population, respectively. The total death rate was 0.3 per 1,000 below that for the year 1918, but 0.7 above the average death rate for the ten years 1909-18. For the Province of Leinster the death rate was 19.4 per 1,000, for Munster 16.8, for Ulster 18.2, and for Connaught 16.1. The number of deaths rose from 18,286 in the first quarter of 1918 to 28,106 in the first quarter of 1919, and in the second quarter from 18,272 to 20,854. In the third quarter of 1919 the deaths numbered 13,759, as compared with 15,426, and in the fourth quarter the deaths amounted to 15,893, as compared with 26,711 in the corresponding quarter of the year preceding. The increased mortality in the first half of the year under review is accounted for by an epidemic of influenza, to which cause 9,406 deaths during the year were attributed. Of the total deaths during the year under review, 62.3 per cent. were registered during the first six months—January to June, inclusive; and 37.7 per cent. in the remaining six months. The annual rates represented by the deaths registered in each quarter are as follows:—25.2 per 1,000 of the population for the first quarter, 18.7 for the second, 12.3 for the third, and 14.2 for the fourth. The rate for the first quarter is 5.5 above, for the second 1.1 above, for the third 1.5 below, and for the fourth 2.2 below the average rate for the corresponding quarters in the ten years 1909-18. Of the total deaths registered in Ireland 5.5 per cent. occurred in "infirmaries and general and special hospitals," the percentages for the four provinces varying from 1.0 in Connaught to 11.2 in Leinster. Deaths which took place in the workhouses or workhouse hospitals constituted 13.0 per cent. of the total deaths, the respective percentages of these deaths for the provinces being—Leinster 14.9, Munster 17.6, Ulster 9.7, and Connaught 9.6.

DEATHS BY VIOLENCE.

The deaths from violence registered during the year 1919 in Ireland include 67 by homicide, 130 by suicide, 24 deaths of soldiers, caused by wounds received in battle; and 1,215 by other causes, including accidents. These taken together give a total of 1,436 violent deaths. In the year 1918 there was a corresponding total of 1,505, including 32 deaths by homicide, 110 by suicide, 29 by wounds received in battle, and 1,363 other deaths by violence, including accidental deaths. The deaths which were definitely assigned to homicide—67 in number—include the deaths of 54 males (four of this figure being infants under one month old), and 13 of females, seven of whom were under one month old. The suicidal deaths (130) included the deaths of 98 males and 32 females. The deaths other than those which have been definitely classified to homicide and suicide include 25 deaths by accidental poisoning, 306 by burns and scalds (of these 148 were of children under five years of age), and 186 by drowning.

MANSION HOUSE COAL FUND.

The Committee met in the Mansion House on Thursday evening. In the unavoidable absence of the Lord Mayor, Mr. William Field presided. Also attended:—Mrs. Maud Walsh, Mr. John Fogarty, J.P.; and Sir John Irwin, J.P., hon. secretary. Sir John Irwin reported that subscriptions amounting to £116 9s. 0d. had been received since the previous meeting, including £100 from Messrs. Arthur Guinness, Son and Co., Ltd., making a total to credit of the fund of £763 1s. 3d.

The Committee expressed disappointment on noting the absence of several names from the subscription list of firms and individuals who had in past years generously supported this fund, and they trust that, notwithstanding the depression in trade, the amount of the subscription list may be doubled during the coming weeks, in order that relief may be afforded to thousands of their poorer brethren who, through force of circumstances, are so badly in need of fuel, and thus assist in alleviating some of the distress which prevails.

It was arranged to hold the next meeting of the Committee on 27th inst.
